OUR WORLD WAS MUCH SMALLER

OUR WORLD WAS MUCH SMALLER

By the end of 1969 the Class of 1987 had come into the world. Not only was it a great year because of our arrivals, but it was a great year because many other memorable events occurred. Neil Armstrong was the first man to walk on the moon, Woodstock was a happening, and the all-mighty Mets won the World Series.

Although the world was changing around us, our smaller worlds were unaffected. Our eyes were focused on Barbie Dolls, Fisher-Price Toys, Lincoln Logs, cartoons, and the latest bubble gum on the market.

As we have grown older our worlds have also grown. We have our own troubles and responsibilities. Most of us juggle jobs, academics, sports, and school activities. Nevertheless, we still find time for our fun. Concerts, shopping, or just hanging out with some friends occupies our free time.

As we leave Ramsey High School our eyes are wide open to the future. The World Around Us has never looked brighter or offered more.

Ghaddafy Could Not Stop Them!

In April, 1986, five days after President Reagan ordered the bombing of Libya, nine Latin students and seventeen French students traveled to Italy and France. All had a marvelous, safe trip. The Latin students toured the cities of Florence, Rome, Assisi, and Venice.

All posed in front of the Bell Tower on their last day in Venice.

The student body at Ramsey High has been enriched in a special way this year. There are 12 foreign language students who are here: some with their families, some alone, and some on organized exchanges. These students have come for many different reasons and from a great variety of backgrounds. All have adapted to a new culture and have added a great deal to the lives of everyone in Ramsey High School.

S P I R I T

Blue and gold balloons fill the gym on the day of the Pep Rally.

Rob Coco's Ram Spirit shines through at the Fall Pep Rally.

HIDE OUR...

Mimi Rehse, Tanya Gura, Sharon Field, and Liz Clappi take a break from rooting our team on at an away football game.

Rah Rah's Beth Potter and Kerri Moloney psych up the crowd at the Fall Pep Rally.

RAM PRIDE

School Spirit is soaring at Ramsey High. Our cheerleaders' enthusiastic support has pushed our teams on to many victories. Their efforts are commendable. The fans, however, exhibit the greatest backing for Ramsey's athletes and club members. The cheers, shouts, and unique facial colorings of our students truly add to the fervor of school pride. This excitement is displayed most at pep rallies where students display their blue and gold wardrobe. At Ramsey High, the fans and students are the true embodiment of school spirit. This spirit provides a morale boost both for the individual and for the school as a whole.

Julie Shake and Jen Smith are stunned by all of the blue and gold around.

Bob Harnett is proud to be a Senior at Ramsey.

RISE AND SHINE

The alarm clock goes off and you hit your snooze button maybe three or four times. Others might just pick up the clock and bash it against the wall. We all know that it is absolutely impossible to get up and go to school, especially on those cold Monday mornings when it is still dark outside. That is why no one should blame us when we simply nod off and catch a few winks during one of those boring lectures first period. Once you feel your eye lids closing and your head slowly nodding forward until you suddenly jerk it back up, you know there is no hope. You might as well just put your head down on the desk and sack out. But, before you can relax, you must look around the room to see if anyone saw your head bobbing. As this has happened to most of us, we all can relate to the situation. Teachers, try to have a little sympathy.

Matt Swanson is lost in his dreams.

John Collins's senior slide really sets in.

Hit the snooze button just one more time.

Doug Levin catches a cat nap on his way to school.

Laura Sausville, Karen Kirincich, and Lisa Mancuso grab some pizza at La Gondola.

THE GREAT ESCAPE

Kathy Cleary, Karen Schell, and Kerri Moloney relax and chow down.

LUNCH

Stomachs start grumbling around third period, and when the bell for lunch finally rings, everyone rushes out to their favorite deli or fast-food hangout. Even though we all love the cuisine that is served in the cafeteria, it is nice to get out of school for a little while. It provides a chance to forget about this morning's math test or the English project that is due 9th period. It's a chance to relax and joke around with friends. Whether it is a Big Mac Attack or a pizza craving, the mid-day pit stop is a great break. For a senior with a car (and probably two or three lunch periods) it is easy to cruise to Mickey D's or to B.K. But even the underclassmen can enjoy downtown Ramsey's finest eateries. Ah....how much longer 'til Lunch?

Chris Mack and T.J. Belger place their orders at Mickey D's.

ROCK 'til you DROP

Musical expression is an important aspect of almost every high school student's life. Musical tastes vary widely among the population of RHS. However, in general, the key word all around school is ROCK. Whether it be Hardrock or Softrock is simply a matter of preference.

This year, on January 16, VICA sponsored our school's second Battle of the Bands. It was a chance for students to get up on stage and display their musical talents. There was a great deal of enthusiasm about the event, and the night turned out to be fun for almost everyone. Many of the students who performed were impressive not only in their talent, but also in the amount of effort they put forth to make the evening a success.

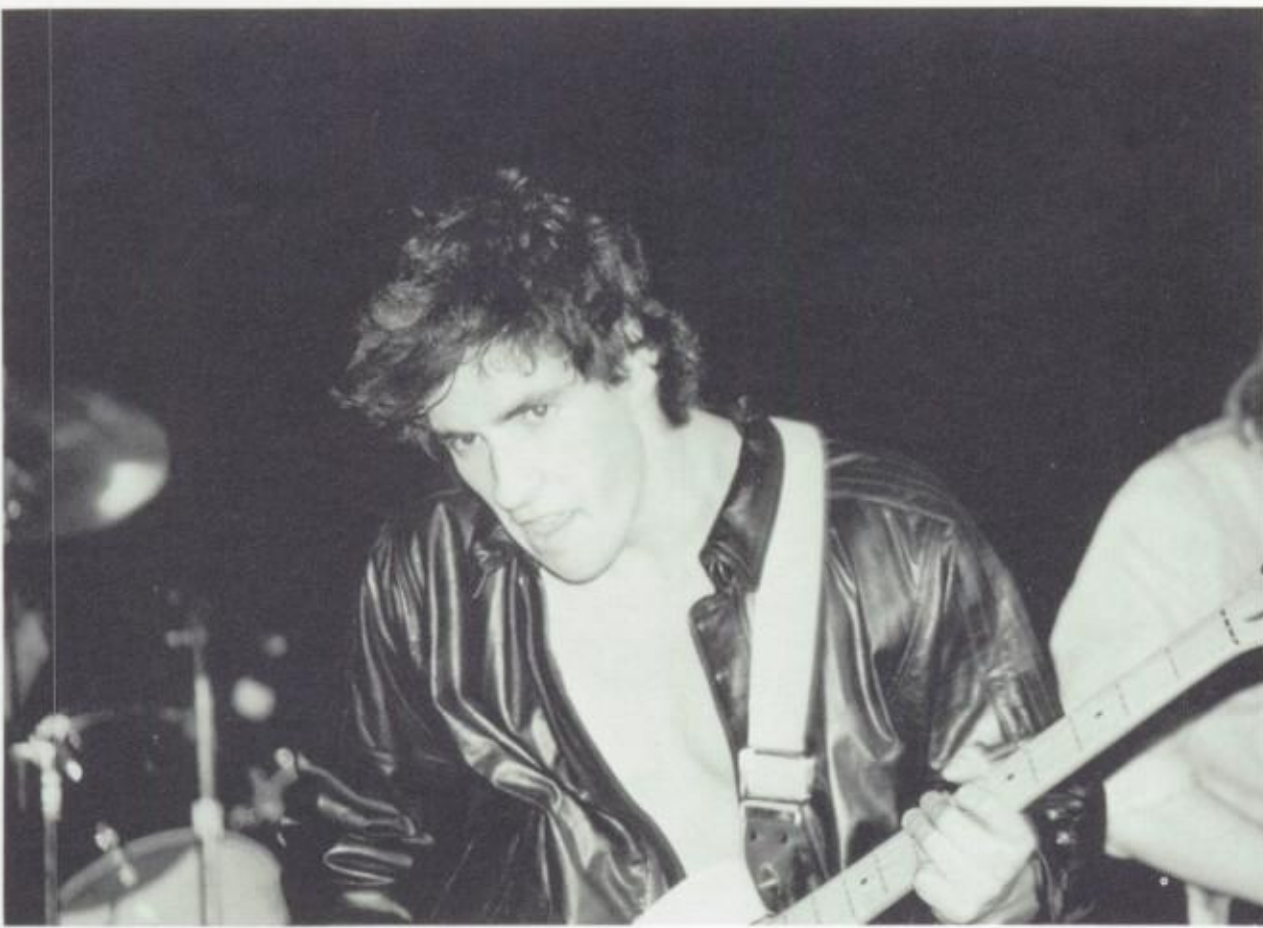

Senior Sabrina Baker watches intently as the bands perform.

Dave Russo, "Juice," gets into some serious guitar playing.

Dave Salierno, a senior, concentrates on his contributions to the song.

Senior Doug Gumbs goes wild on his guitar.

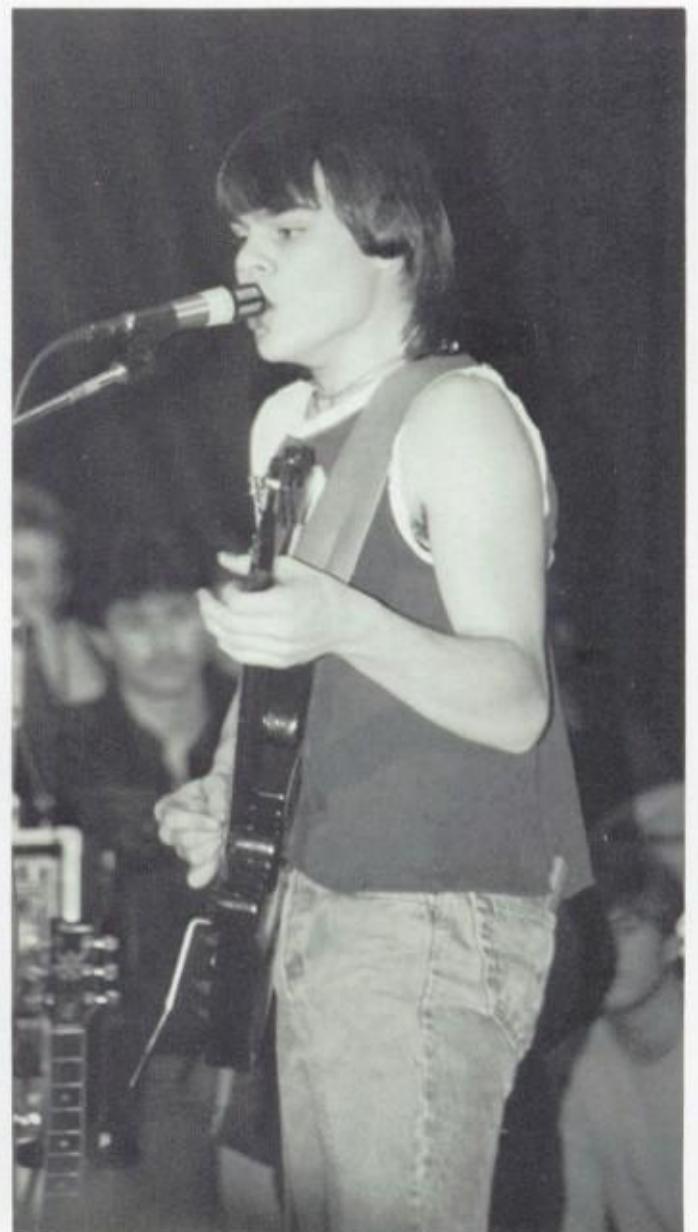

Carol Schneider, Karen Bisallion, and Brian Burgess cheer on the bands.

Senior Eric Davi is mesmerized by the music.

Sheila Schaeffer gives it her all.

Ron Roshong displays his talent on stage.

AFTERNOONS of AQUATIC ECSTASY

The Jersey Shore with friends...There's NOTHING like it! On those hot, summer days many of us head off to the shore points for some sun and fun. Jenkenson's Beach at Point Pleasant is always a popular spot for Ramsey-ites. The morning after the prom is a special time at the shore because we all gather sore-footed and catch some rays. Previously, the shore has been relatively inaccessible to non-drivers. But, fortunately, this year the Shore Train Express will provide transportation for non-mobile people to and from the major beaches. The waves are big, the sand is soft, and the sun is strong. It is a great place to scan the beaches for hot bodies and may be to meet that special person. The boardwalk also offers fun and excitement to a day at the beach. However you spend your time at the shore, the atmosphere is definitely FUN, FUN, FUN!

"I can smell the salt, dude, like we must be there!"

Seniors Doug Bell, Johanna Bond, Liz Sorkenn, Karen Schellinger, and Bob Harnett hang out at Jenkenson's after the Prom.

Sandy Kraebel, Kathy Cleary, and Karen Schellinger try hard to act cool on the beach.

Pat Cody and Amy Kimball relax and catch some rays at Point Pleasant.

"Feel that Sea Breeze." Katie Hallstrom and Johanna Bond.

"Catch a wave 'n' you'll be sittin' on top of the world."

The Beach Boys

"There's a lot of fish in the ocean!"

Rob Coco, Steve Price, Jeff Weber, and Jay McClair pose as Tom Cruise Wanna-beez!

“EVERYBODY’S WORKING for the WEEKEND”

Faced with the dilemma of finding money for food, drinks, and week-end entertainment, many of us resort to part-time jobs. When the allowance runs out, what else is there to do? Some say that they enjoy their jobs, but some say that they dread going to work. Salaries average around minimum wage, which is $3.35 per hour.

Around town, some of the popular places to work include Cury's, Foodtown, Bagel Depot, Ramsey Cinema, Shop Rite, and the pharmacies. But whatever the job, wherever the location, it sure feels great to have money in the bank.

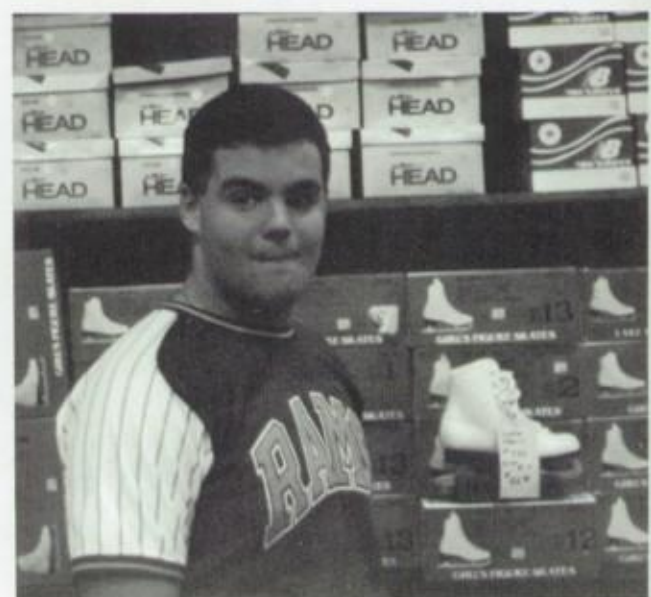

Five thou. a year will buy a lot of cheer.

“Time to make the bagels” — Junior Ellen Newhouse.

“What do you mean, you have 50 coupons?” Robb Holmstead at Foodtown.

These are the best of times—Johanna and Liz.

Buddies Karen Sundermier and Chrissy Diffley grin in synchronicity.

BOSOM BUDDIES

Everybody needs a friend...someone to joke with, a pal to party with, or even a shoulder to cry on. Who else is there to tell your secrets to, talk on the phone until 2:00 a.m. in the morning with, or hang out with on the weekends. Friends are also the ones you shoot hoops with, cruise around with, and even get kicked out of Tiff's with. As you move on and grow older, new friendships will be made and others will grow apart, but no matter what, good times will always be remembered and good friends will never be forgotten.

Allison Boelter and Allison Steiner dress as one.

A pleasant stroll for Neil Conroy and Andrew Borgersen

WINTER WONDERLAND

Everyone is always excited about the first snowfall of the year. There are snowball fights, and even high school students regress to their childhood and sleigh ride. Outdoor winter activities provide relief from the long, humdrum months of January and February. Ice hockey draws many to the ice at the Club, while skiers flock enthusiastically to the slopes.

Pat Cody and Paul Bachstetter take a break from their intense hockey game to lounge around in the snow.

Tricia Alexander smiles for the camera while she cleans the snow off her car.

Hit that puck.

Ramsey Snow Bunnies.

Wait a minute, I'm tying my skates.

ROADTRIPS

"New York, New York, what a wonderful town."

Seniors Kathy "Kweerbo" Cleary, Beth "Egghead" Potter, and Karen "Skelli—Belly" Schellinger have a blast at Apple Ridge.

Sue Cartledge and Jen Handlin enjoy the sun and fun at the Jersey shore.

The Three Musketeers — Tracy Wilson, Donna Summer, and Susan Thauer.

As much as we all love this town, it does get somewhat boring on occasional Friday and Saturday nights. To alleviate this monotony, we sometimes resort to roadtrips. These include trips to NY night clubs, trips to local attractions, and even week-end adventures. Shopping in Greenwich Village is a popular pasttime for some. For those who do not drive, trains and buses provide transportation to many of these fun-filled places. The accessibility of local shopping malls such as Paramus Park makes a day of shopping easy and fun. Also, with the Meadowlands only about half an hour away, concerts are easy to get to and an exciting alternative to Tiffany's. Whether you go to Disney World, Byrne Arena, Hawaii, or Paramus Park, it is nice to get some out-of-town excitement every once in a while.

Julie Thayer and Laura Schaffler hang out at Giardelli Square in San Francisco.

Art teacher Mimi Bajakian relaxes in Oahu, Hawaii.

The guys are having fun down at the shore.

LET'S PARTY

It's finally Friday and rumors about tonight's open house party have been circulating around school for days. There's a possibility of a few kegs, and everyone will be there.

This is the week-end, the chance to escape the rigorous academic pressures of school and go out and party with friends. From Wednesday on, the countdown begins. Parties provide an opportunity for kids to get to know each other outside of school. In this social atmosphere, one can cut loose and go a little crazy. Parties are more abundant during the fall and spring than during the cold winter months. During the winter, many people go to Tiffany's Diner to hang out. But, when someone does decide to have "a few people over," word gets around so fast that it soon develops into a full-fledged PARTY!

As June and Graduation approach, parties become even more popular — especially for Seniors. It is time for Seniors to remember all of the good times in high school, and all of the parties.

Tricia Brady and Dawn Derbyshire pre-party in the limo.

"Hail, Hail, the gang's all here!"

Karen Schellinger, Liz Sorkenn, Johanna Bond, and Kerri Moloney have a little get-together.

"A night on the town." Jen Connolly, Ellen Newhouse, and Jill Schuck.

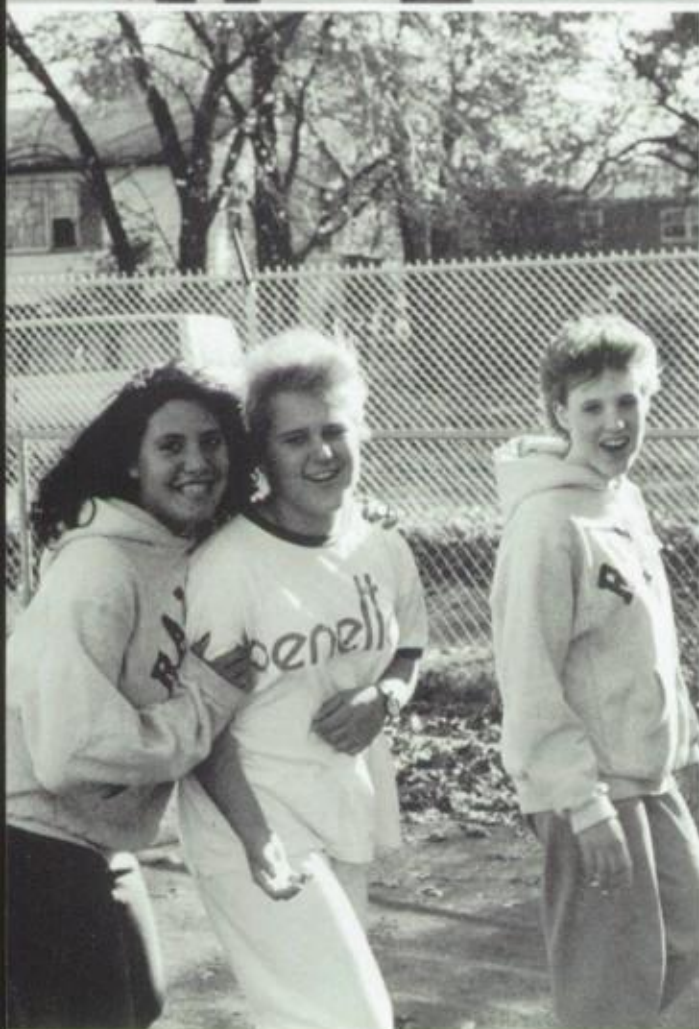

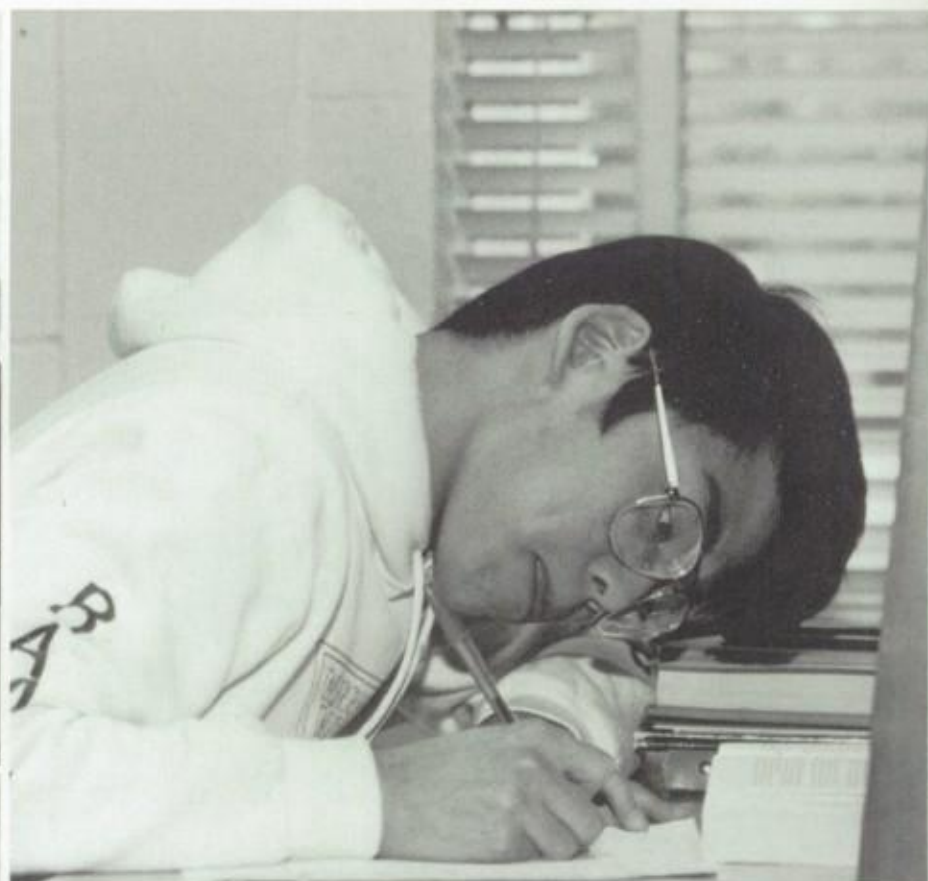

We all can't be winners at quarters — Jay McClair, Heather Boerner, Booker Daniels, and Glen McDonnell.

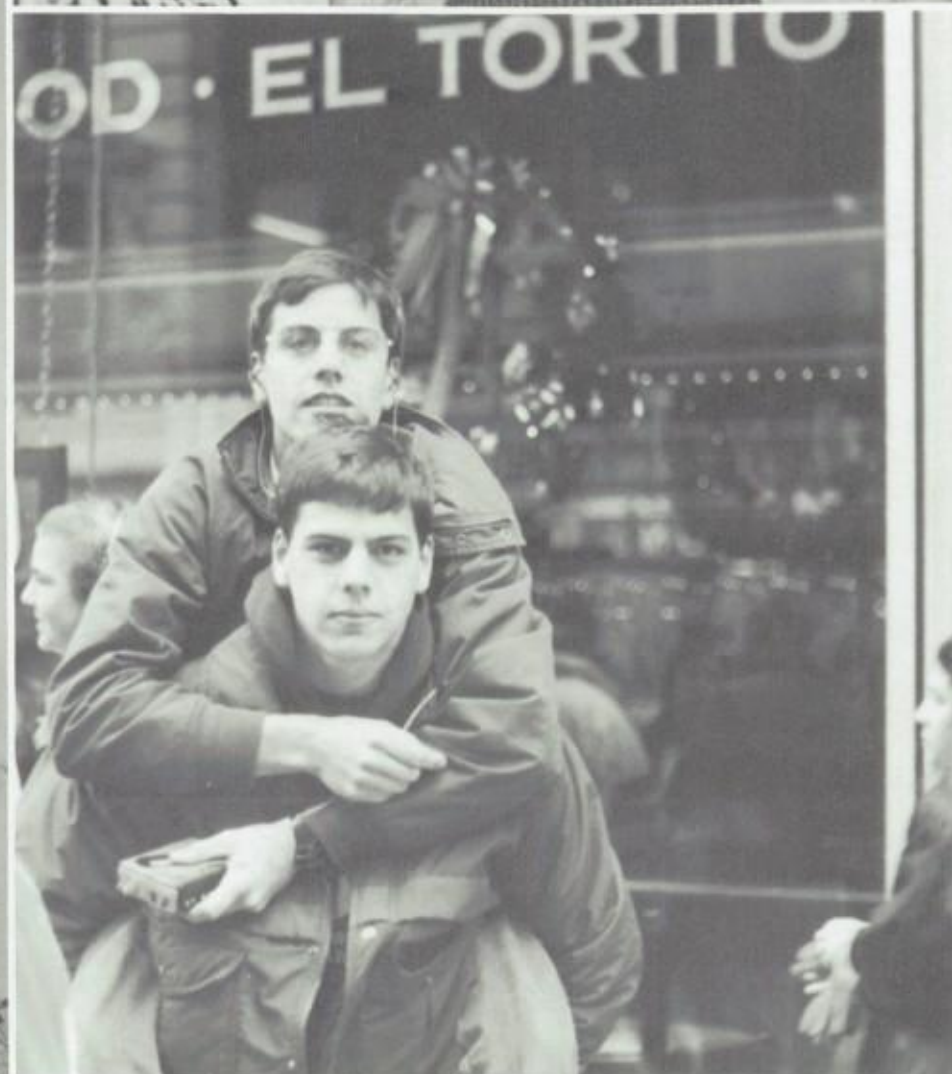

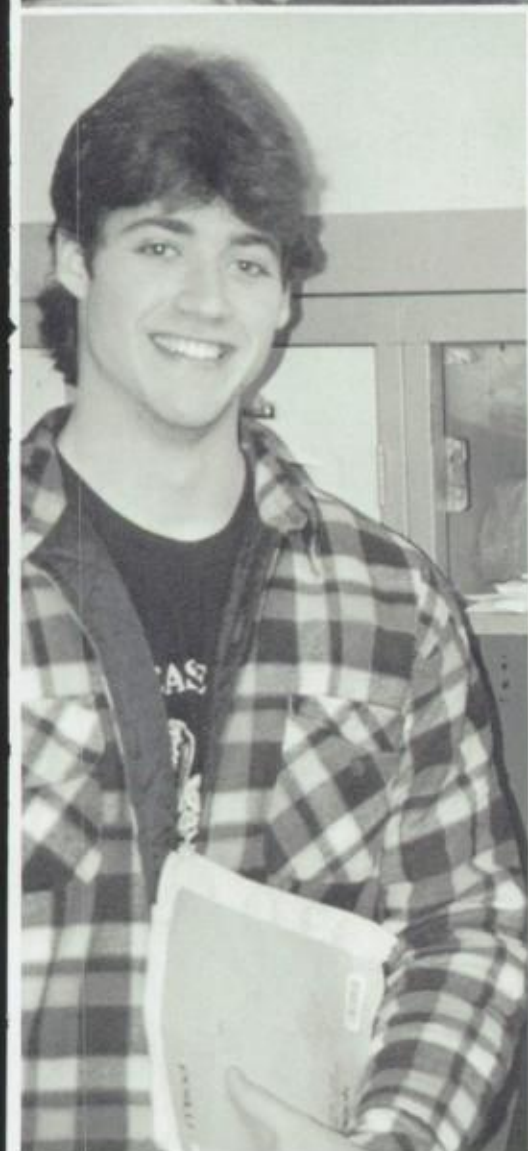

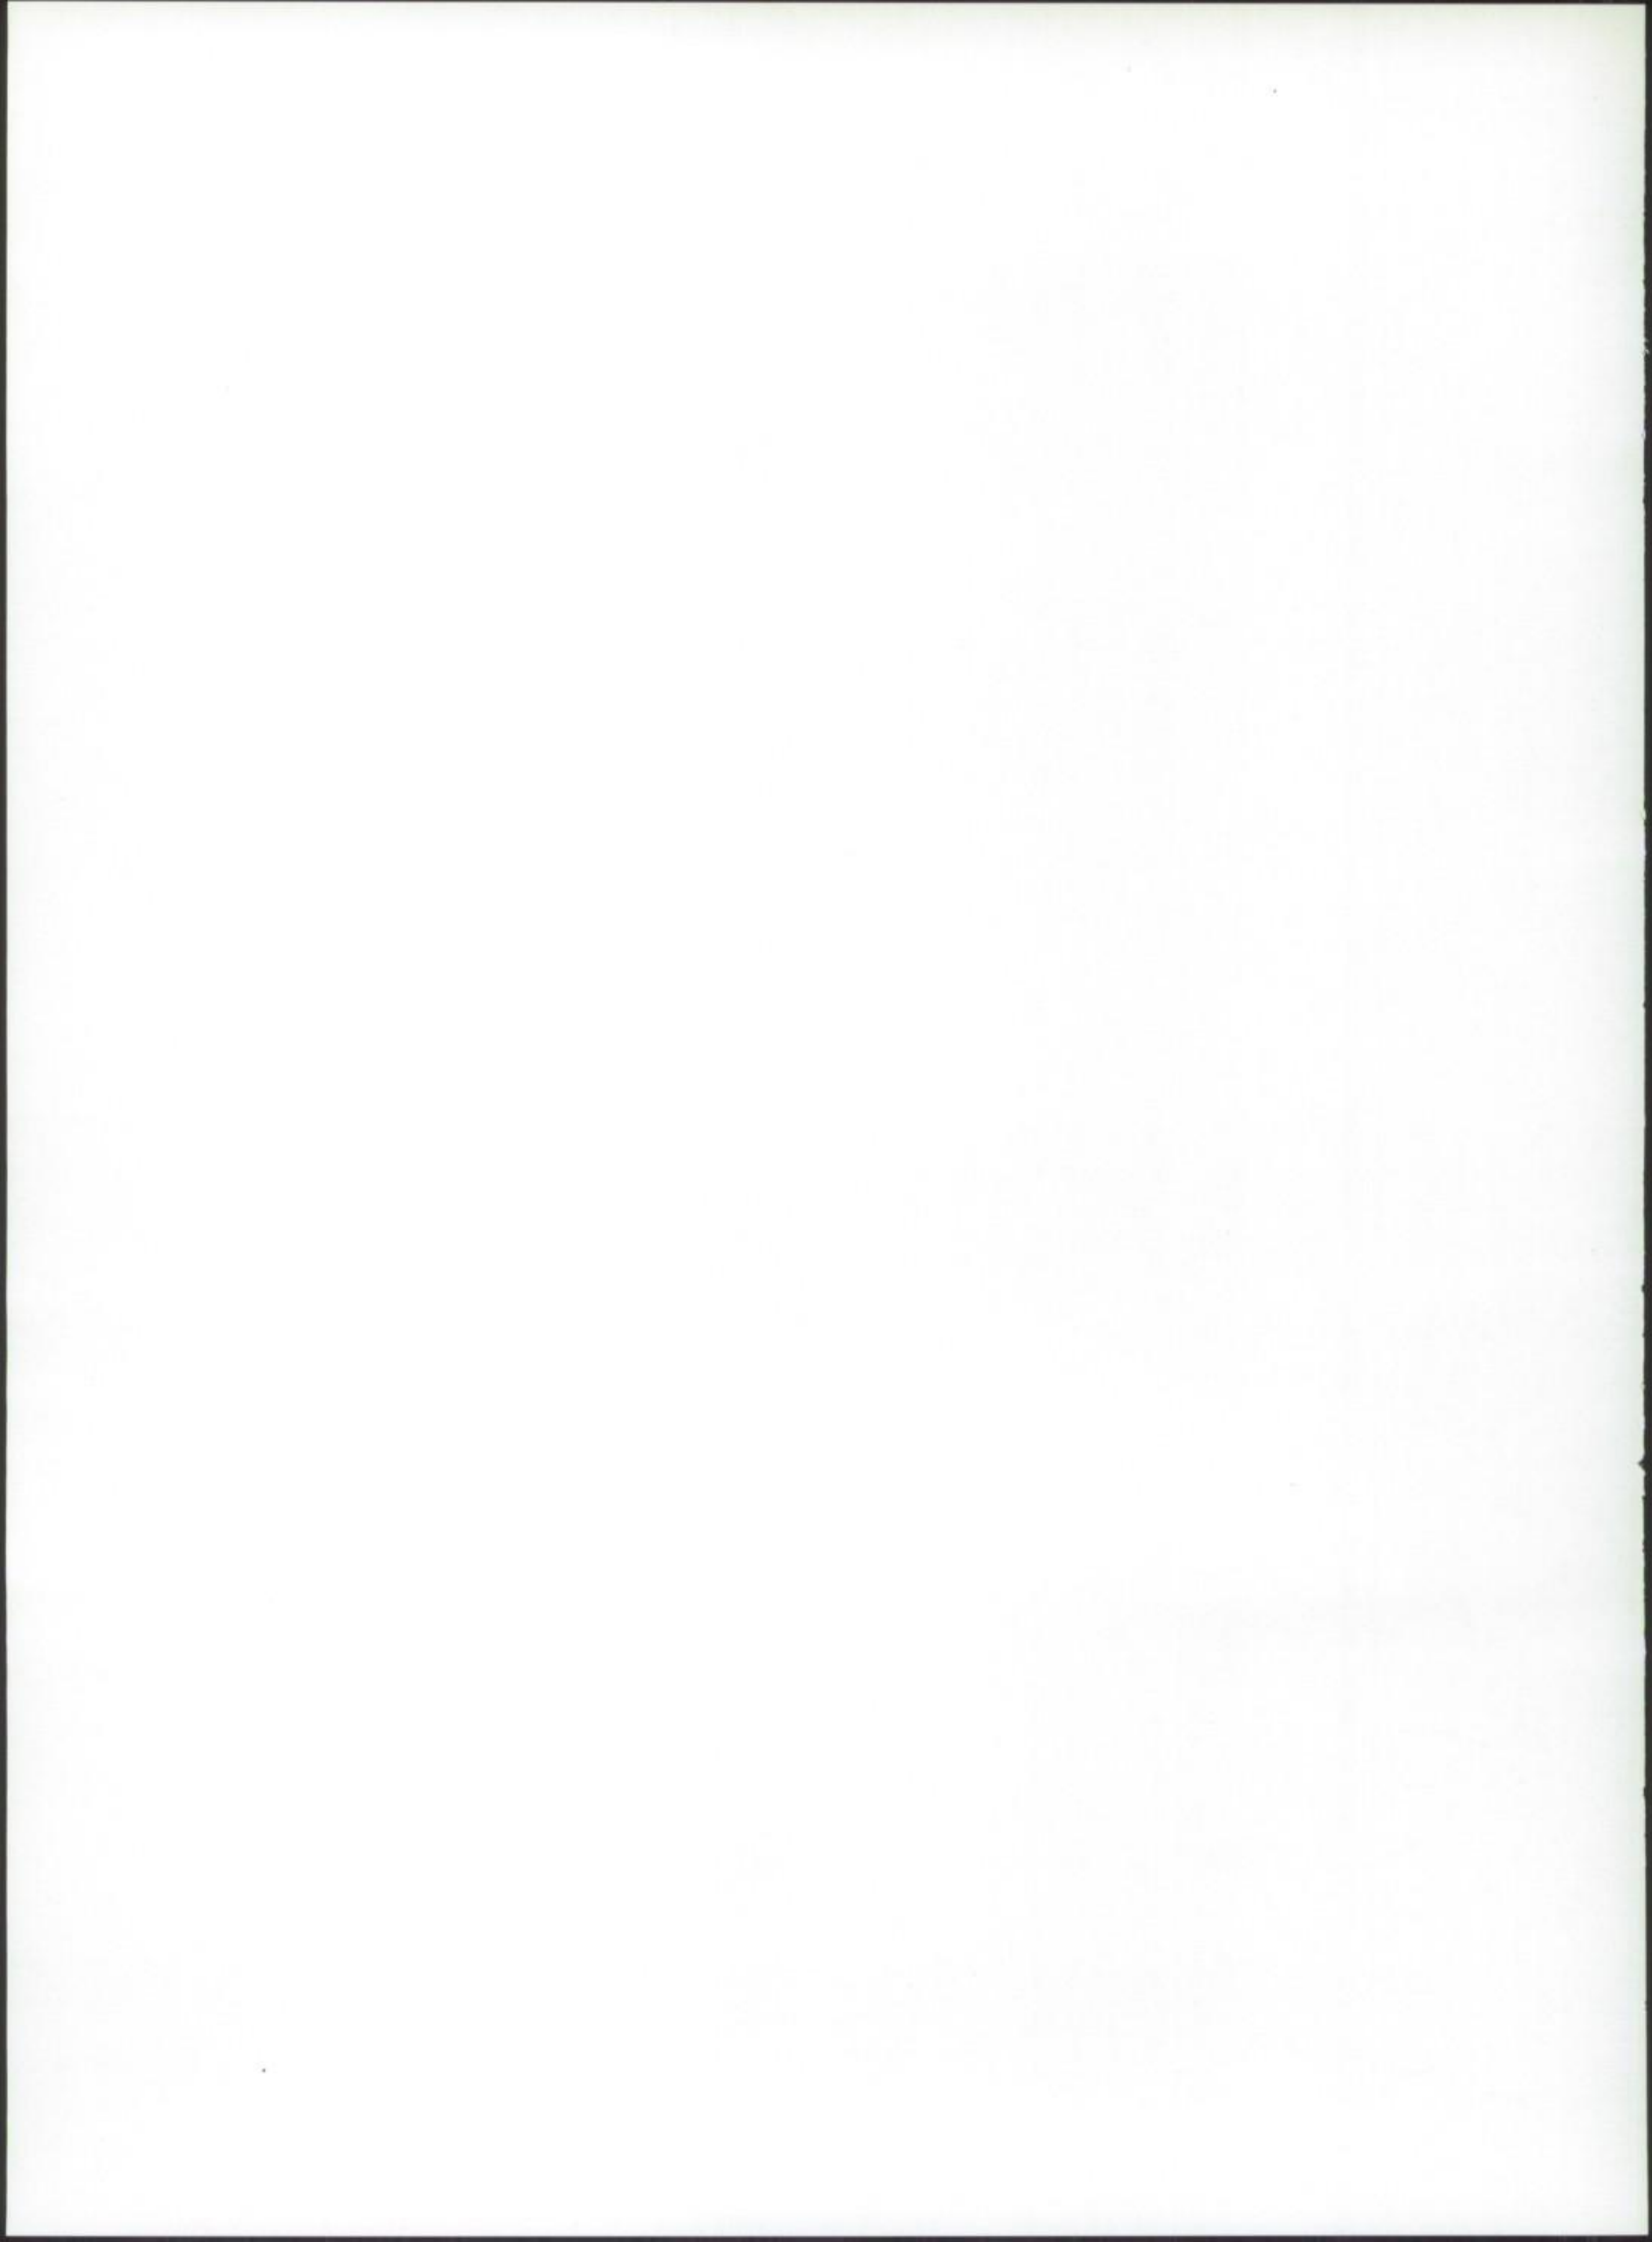

Volleyball, anyone?

Anyone for Hawaii?

RAM BLITZ '86

The Ramsey High School Football Team suffered a despressing 2-7 record this season. The Rams were led by tri-captains Glenn Ausmus, Jim Daw and Steve Gottmann. But, due to the shortage of upperclassmen and injuries, the Ram starters were up of inexperienced players. However, with the leadership of the few seniors, the Rams were able to maintain a close-knit team throughout the season. Despite the tough season, the Rams had standouts who received All-League Recognition. Junior linebacker and halfback Andy Pero was voted First-Team All-League. Quarterback Jim Daw received Second Team All-League Honors, along with juniors Tom Eilers, defensive and offensive tackle, and Don Forlai, halfback and linebacker. Seniors Glenn Ausmus, Steve Gottmann, Andrew Rakowski and Eric Scholl all were voted honorable mention. The Rams hope to have a better season next year, with many returning lettermen.

BOYS' SOCCER HAS CONSISTENCY

Coached by Mr. Bob Edge, the 1986 Rams had many young players on their roster and relied heavily on the leadership of its ten returning seniors to compile a solid winning 10-7-3 record.

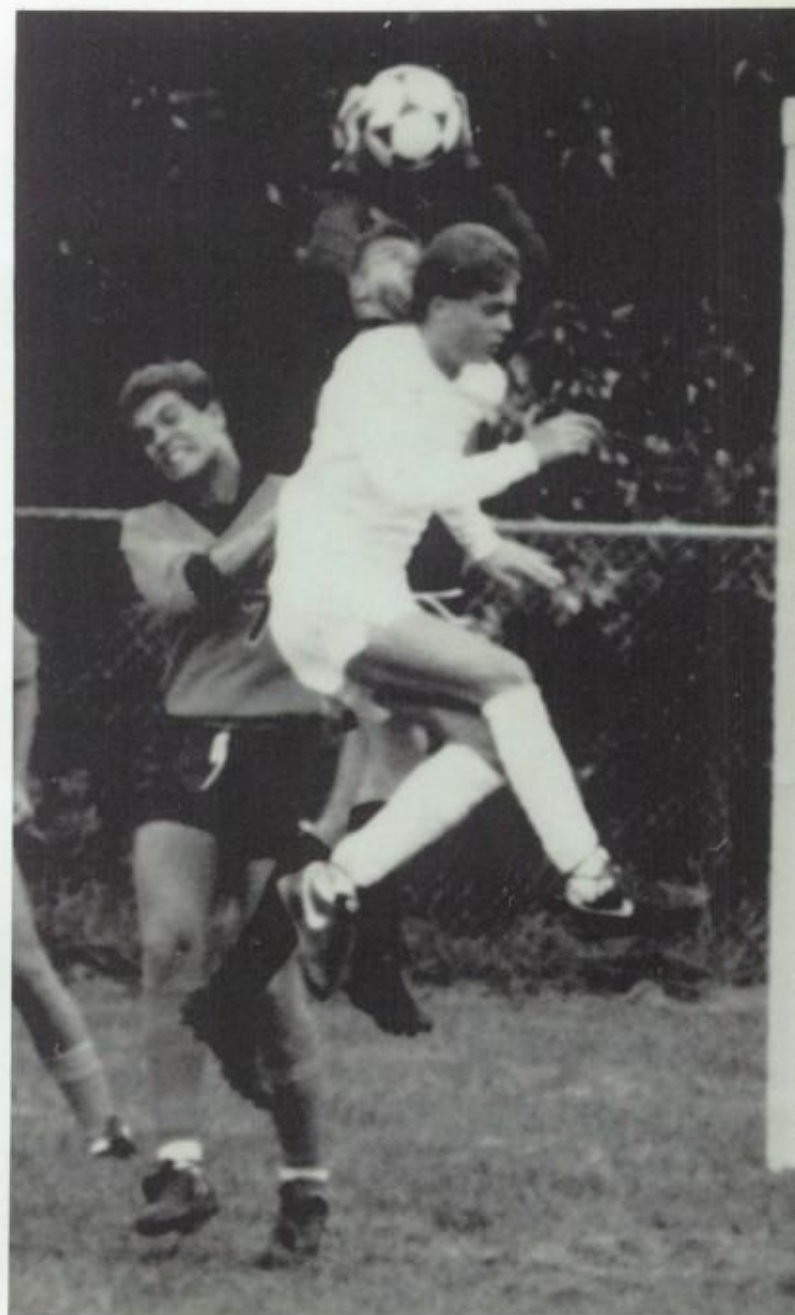

Defensively, the Rams were sparked by seniors T.J. Belger, Bruce Garber (all-league honorable mention), Jay McClair (second team all-league), and senior Stephen Hess. In goal was senior Jeff Weber, first team all-league and most valuable player. The Rams compiled nine shutouts, and they did not let up a goal for five consecutive games.

The spectacular play of seniors Rob Coco (first team all-league), John Collins, Steve Price, Norwegian transfer student Boord Ransedokken (second team all-league with 13 goals), and Matt Silverman gave the Rams a well-rounded scoring attack. Before losing to Vernon 3-2 in the second round of the State Tournament the Rams upset fourth-ranked Englewood with a 2-1 win.

Next year the Rams will be looking to qualify for the county tournament and go farther in the states. With the return of players Rusty Carlson, John Del Mastro, Matt Fialkoff, Nick La Verghetta, Jim McElderry, Victor Ortiz, Eric Shuffler, Ricky Van Pelt and some players from the 12-1-3 Junior Varsity Team, the Rams will once again be looking at a very bright future.

SOCCER RAH-RAHS KEEP THE SPIRIT

Following in the tradition of Ramsey High Cheerleaders, this year's Varsity Soccer Squad gave all its enthusiasm and support to the Boy's Soccer Team. The squad was led by Captains Lisa Demas and Melanie Winderbaum and Senior Lisa Mancuso and Liz Potter. The squad was coached by Mrs. Diana McRory. Dedication and hard work were clearly evident on this young but outstanding team. The Rah-Rahs inspired both the players and the fans toward greater school spirit.

Denise Ahern off roading.

CROSS COUNTRY

Once again, the Boys' Cross Country Team, led by Coach Fred Ufferfilge and Coach John Kirchoff, was extraordinary. The 1986 team had its 2nd consecutive undefeated season with a 12-0 record. The team finished as the NBIL Div. 2 Champs, Bergen County Group III Champs, NJ State Sect. Group III Champs. Leading the Rams were senior Capt. Matt Swanson (all-suburban 1st Team, NBIL 1st Team, All-County 2nd Team), senior Chris Meyers (All Suburban 1st team, NBIL-1st Team, All-County 3rd Team), Glenn McDonnell (all suburban 2nd team, NBIL 1st Team), Andrew Meyers and Pete Bray.

The 1986 Girls' Cross Country Team was an extremely young and inexperienced squad that returned only 2 seniors. Despite this, the team had a very respectable 66 record. The team was led by senior captain Denise Ahern (1st team All-Suburban, 2nd team All-County, 1st team All-NBIL) and senior captain, Alexandra Topley, who held the team together throughout the season.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The 1986 Tennis Team worked hard to rebuild this year after losing key seniors last year. Although the team finished 1-16, they displayed excellent tennis talent showing the potential they have for next year's season. Captain was senior, Lori Murray, who shared third singles and first doubles with sophomore, Amy Swanson. Playing first singles was Stacy Shero, Dawn Pilliteri was the second singles player, Patch Neuman played first doubles and Stacey Puro and Melissa Bischoff shared the second doubles position. Freshman Tina Gertsch received a Varsity letter playing second doubles when filling in during the season. JV members are Kerry Krasker, Alison Boelter, Vivian Bennett, Renee Fleischhaauer and Lana Wiseber. Stacy Shero was honorable mention NBIAL and the recipient of the Booster Club's MVP; Kerry Kresker received the NIP award.

GYMNASTICS

The Gymnastics Team, under the direction of Coach Karen Pierro, had 2 wins and 6 losses this season. They placed 2nd in the County Invitational. The team was captained by Seniors Gretchen Sloan and Janet Murphy. Other seniors on the team were Debbie Summer, Allison Negrini, Donna Staudt, and Krissy Castle. Freshman Jen Post did very well in the meets.

Coach Pierro takes a breather.

Before the start of the 1986 Field Hockey Season, the team knew it would be Coach Heddy's last year on the sidelines. With this in mind, the girls set out to send Coach Heddy off with lasting memories. With dedication and teamwork, the team recorded a 3-8-5 record, despite having only four seniors on the squad, and playing some of the toughest competition in the country. The team was led by senior Co-Captain Margaret Fisher (2nd Team All-League & Honorable Mention All County), the team's topscorer, and senior Co-Captain, Michaelene Hodge (Honorable Mention All-League). The Ramsey net was guarded by senior Sharon Goodwin (2nd team All League & 2nd team All County), who was also voted the team's MVP. Senior Morgan Moss also contributed her leadership and experience to the Ram's season. These seniors were supported by a talented group of underclassmen led by Debbie Taylor (1st team All-League & 2nd team All-County) and Cheryl Terry (2nd team All League and Hon. Mention All-County). Additional outstanding underclassmen were Meredith Gingsberg, who was voted most improved, Dawn Derbyshire, and C. Mansfield. The Ramsey Field Hockey's future looks bright.

GIRL'S SOCCER

VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS

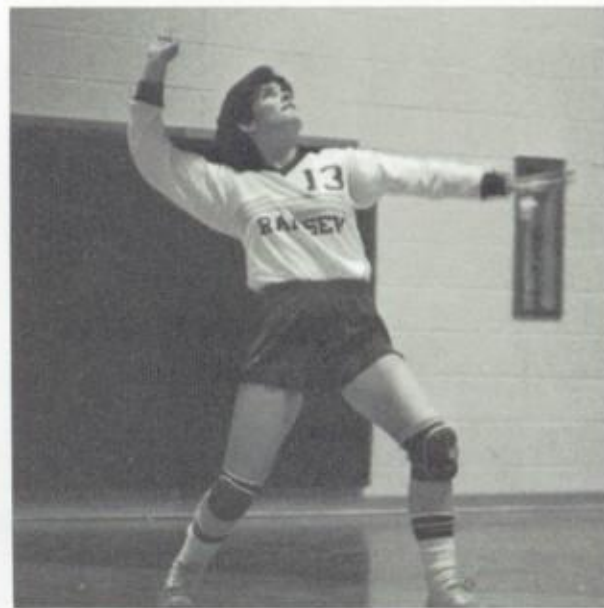

The 1986 season was another excellent year for the volleyball team. They compiled a 21-6 record, captured the NBIAL Division II Championship, and was a Group III State Finalist. The team's success was a result of teamwork, consistency, and the lack of selfishness. The senior ladden team was led by captain Dani Bean, Chrisi Bambrick, Natalie Darmohraj, Sue Jackson, Resa

Manning, and Kim Rumsey.

The season was highlighted by beating Old Tappan and Ramapo the first team ever, beating Westwood at Westwood to clinch the league title, a spectacular semi-final victory over Tenafly, and five players being named to All-League teams. An impressive 17-3 J.V. record insures the Rams of a very successful future.

FIELD HOCKEY

This was Coach Heddy's last season as Head Coach and her most enjoyable. There was a great deal of teamwork both on and off the field and all the girls contributed to the season.

The team record of 3-8-5 does not reflect how well the girls played. The members played some of the top teams to some very close games.

The high standard of play was recognized by the coaches in the league and the county as several team members received All League and All-County honors: Debbie Taylor — 1st Team All-League, 2nd Team All-County; Sharon Goodwin — 2nd Team All-League, 2nd Team All-County; Margaret Fisher — 2nd Team All-League, Honorable Mention All-County; Shery Terry — 2nd Team All-League, Honorable Mention All-County; Michaelene Hodge — Honorable Mention All League. Two players were honored by their team mates — Sharon Goodwin, MVP and Meredith Gunsberg, MIP.

GIRL'S HOOPS

The Lady Rams were very competitive despite their 4 and 21 record. They competed hard and took league powers Old Tappan, Pascack Valley, Northern Highlands, and Wayne Hills to the wire. The season ended with an impressive 21 point victory over Dumont.

The year also brought about the development of some of the team's younger players. Freshman Lisa School performed admirably and was one of the varsity's leading rebounders. Junior Heather Terrace4 performed the bulk of the ball-handling duties as the team's point guard. Senior Dani Bean played outstanding ball, leading the team with a 15 PPG average. She also shot 84% from the free throw line. Senior Chris Bambrick led the team in rebounding while Senior Sharon Goodwin performed many rules. The coach was Mr. Frank Baldino.

Captains Matt Kaminski and Jim Daw were both lost for the seasons leaving Bob Harnett as the only returning starter. After a 1-6 start, the team began playing confidently and finished the season with 9 wins in the last 14 games. Tim Chisholm, Pat Merritt, Mike Mascetelli and Tom Belger made up the rest of the starting five players.

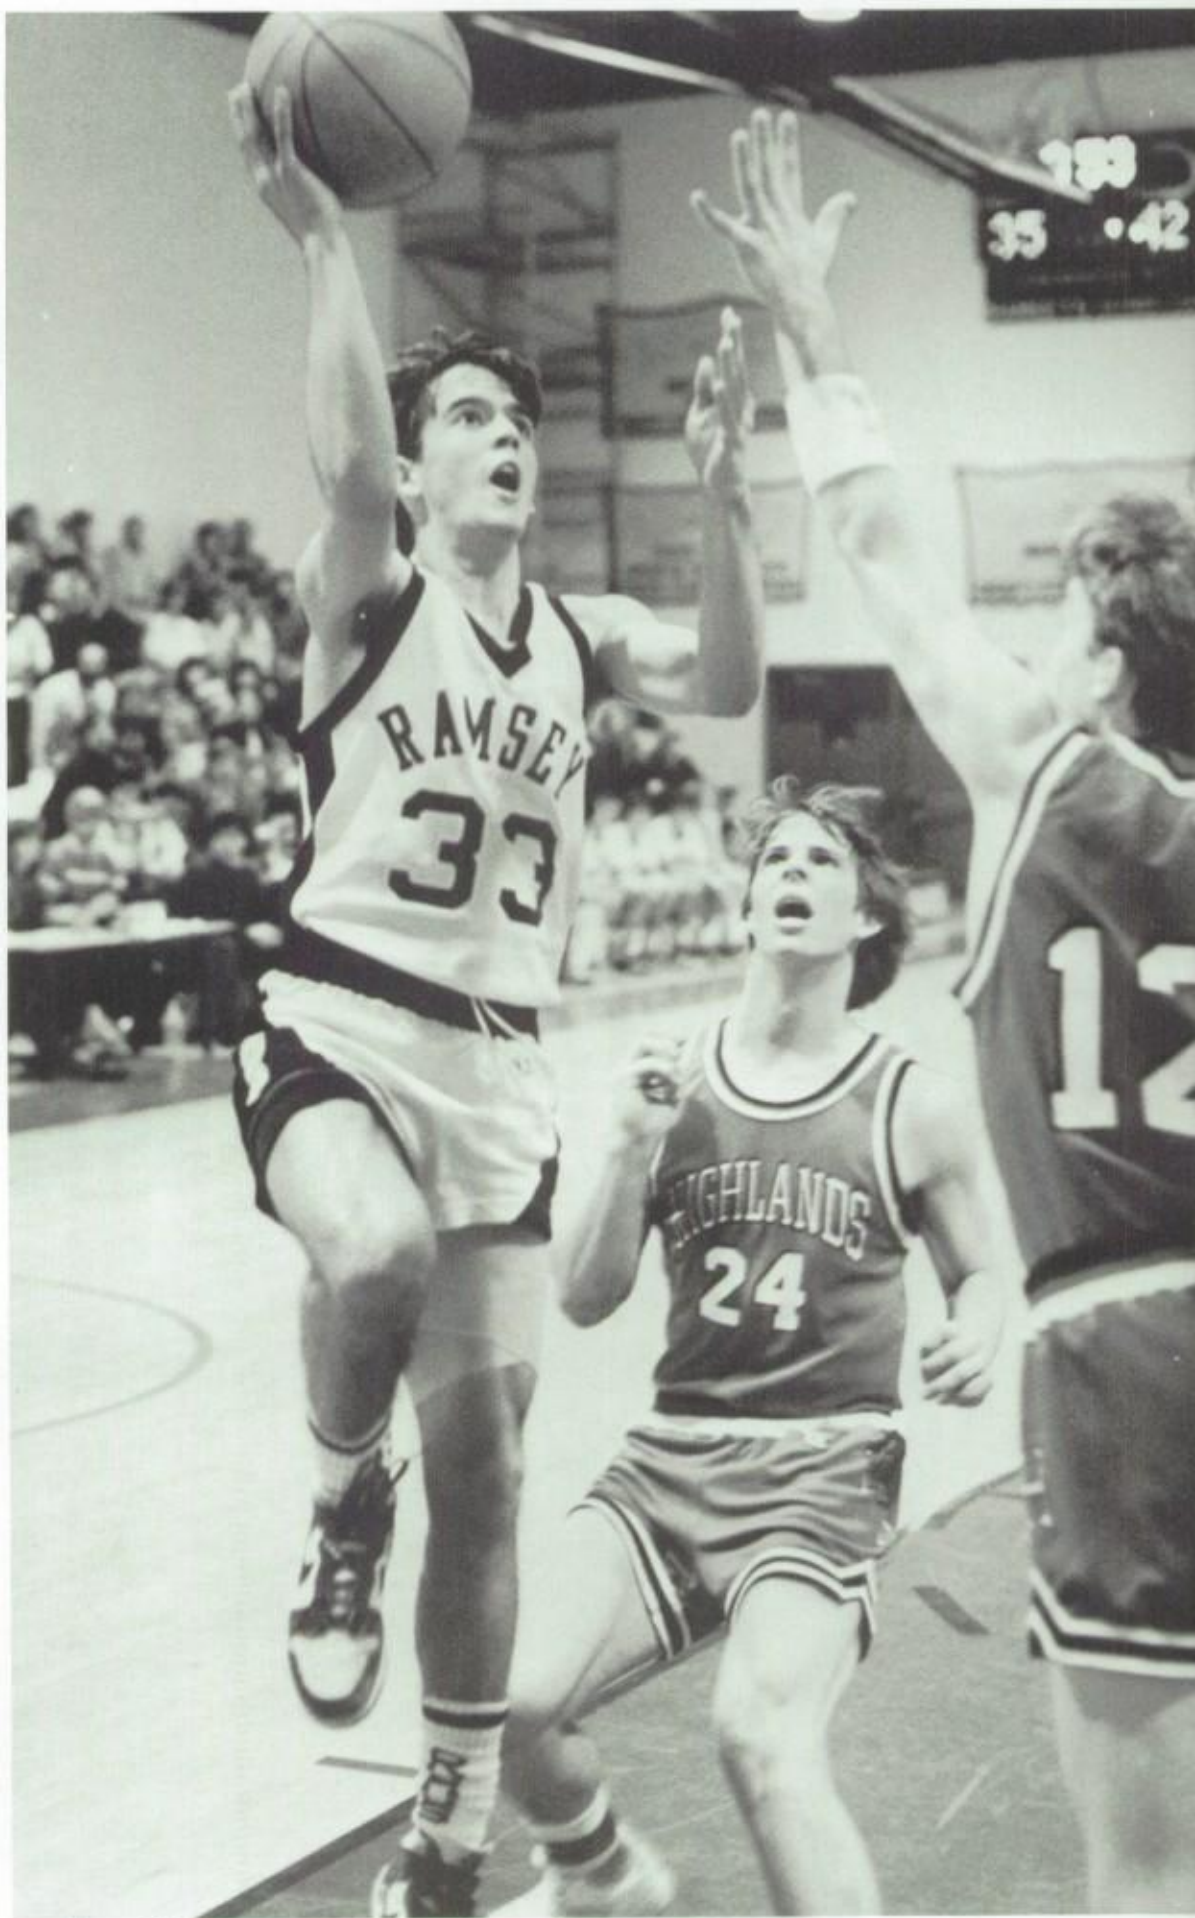

The Junior Varsity recorded a fine 19-2 season. Fans can look forward to exciting basketball in the future.

Reading the pages, one doesn't think of all the hours it took to create them; editors must lay-out, write copy, identify photographs. Most important of all: Deadlines must be met. Thanks to Mrs. Burkhardt and Katie Hallstrom, you are reading a successful product.

The year 1986 marked the first time in the history of competitive marching that the group demolished the 90 mark. May I take this opportunity to offer my sincerest congratulations to all the members of the Class of 1987. The recognition and best wishes that you will receive in the upcoming weeks are certainly well-deserved. You have accepted the many challenges offered by your teachers, coaches, and advisors and performed exceptionally well. I would urge you to continue to act in that same conscientious, hard-working and responsible manner. By so doing, I am confident you will be successful in your future pursuits. Again, may I offer my congratulations and the best wishes of the entire staff. We are extremely proud of you.

Dr. George R. Rizzo
Principal

Long after you have forgotten the Pythagorean Theorem, you will remember The Top Row; you will have forgotten when to use the subjunctive, but you will remember Homecoming and the Valentine's Dance. Will you remember how hard you worked or how lazy you were? Will you remember how much you did for yourself, or how much the teachers and staff of Ramsey did for you? It is too late to change what you did at Ramsey High School or how you did it. The challenge is to make the most of it.

Sincerely,
Thomas J. Melville

HAVE YOU MET?

JOHN HOAGLAND

John Hoagland, the new chairman of the English department at Ramsey High School, has had a long and diversified career in education. A graduate of Montclair State College, Mr. Hoagland holds a BA degree in English and Latin and an MA in Administration and Supervision. He has also taken courses at Columbia Teachers College and Rutgers University.

The new chairman has experience as a teacher, department chairman, assistant principal, member of the school board in North Plainfield and most recently as Union County Regional English Coordinator responsible for the supervision of 50 teachers in four high schools. Mr. Hoagland also teaches a course in report writing at the Newark College of Engineering in the evening.

When asked his thoughts about the English department at RHS, Mr. Hoagland replied that it was a good department currently in search of new areas of study. His primary objectives for the department are to organize and tighten the curriculum, and to reenforce those areas which need it, primarily the communication skills, and English for the non-college bound. Hoagland would also like to see the elective program expanded and developed. But, as he was quick to point out, any elective program must have certain built in guidelines to encourage students to choose from several different course areas.

The new chairman stressed the necessity for the English curriculum to meet the needs of the student community. "Any curriculum should be flexible enough to provide for both different students and different strengths of teachers," said Mr. Hoagland. "I invite teacher's theories about curriculum," he added, "for they are the ones who are going to teach it."

Mr. Hoagland had a great deal to say about the need for the English department to teach the communication skills, writing and speech. "Writing should be clear and communicate ideas. If learned properly in the English classes, it will carry over to other courses," said the chairman.

When asked what things he would like to see changed in the department, Mr. Hoagland had the following suggestions. Courses might be one semester in length instead of a full year. Names could be given to English courses instead of the present system of calling them English 1, 2, 3 and 4. And, students should be given some choice in selecting courses when feasible.

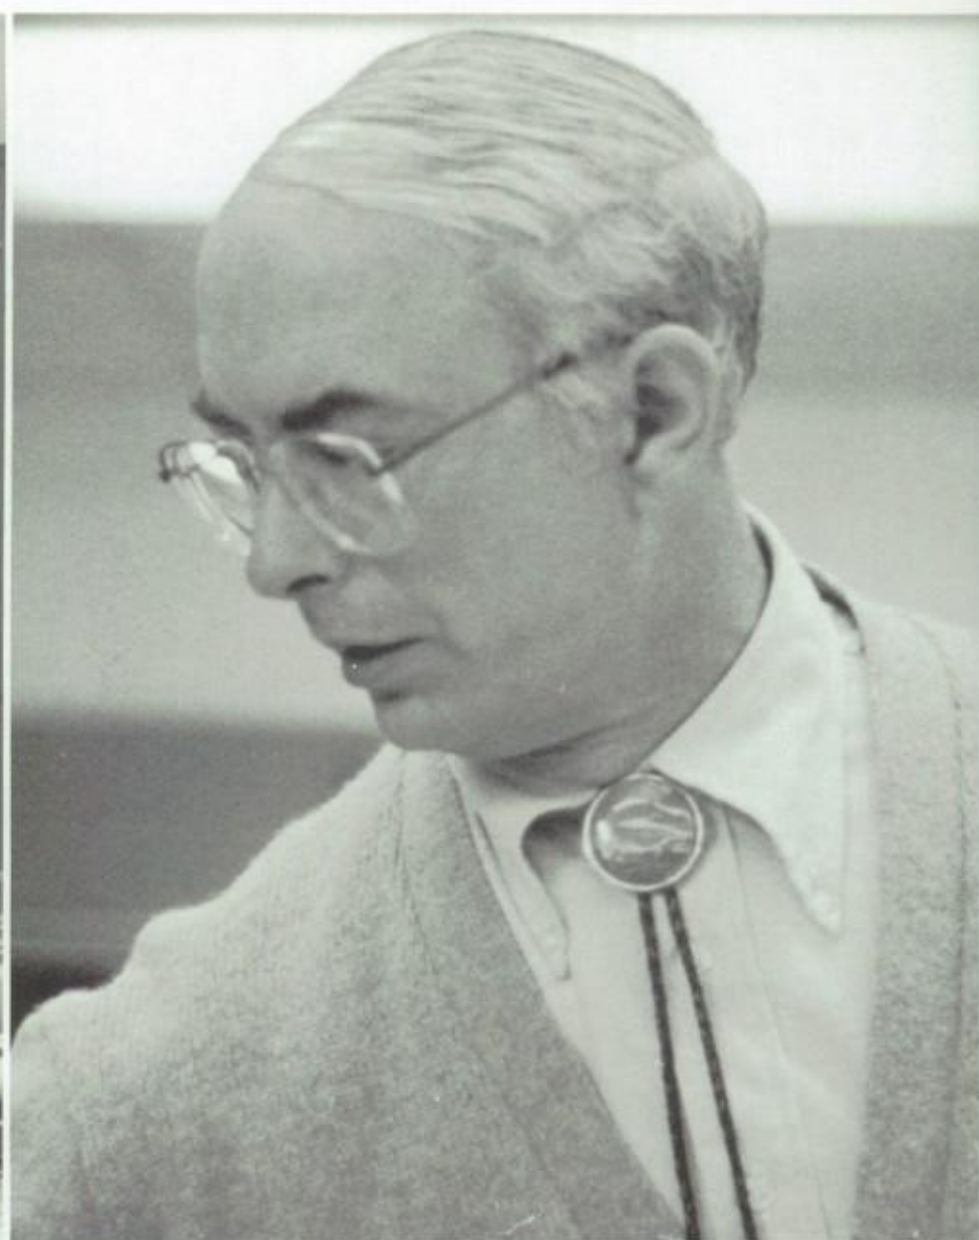

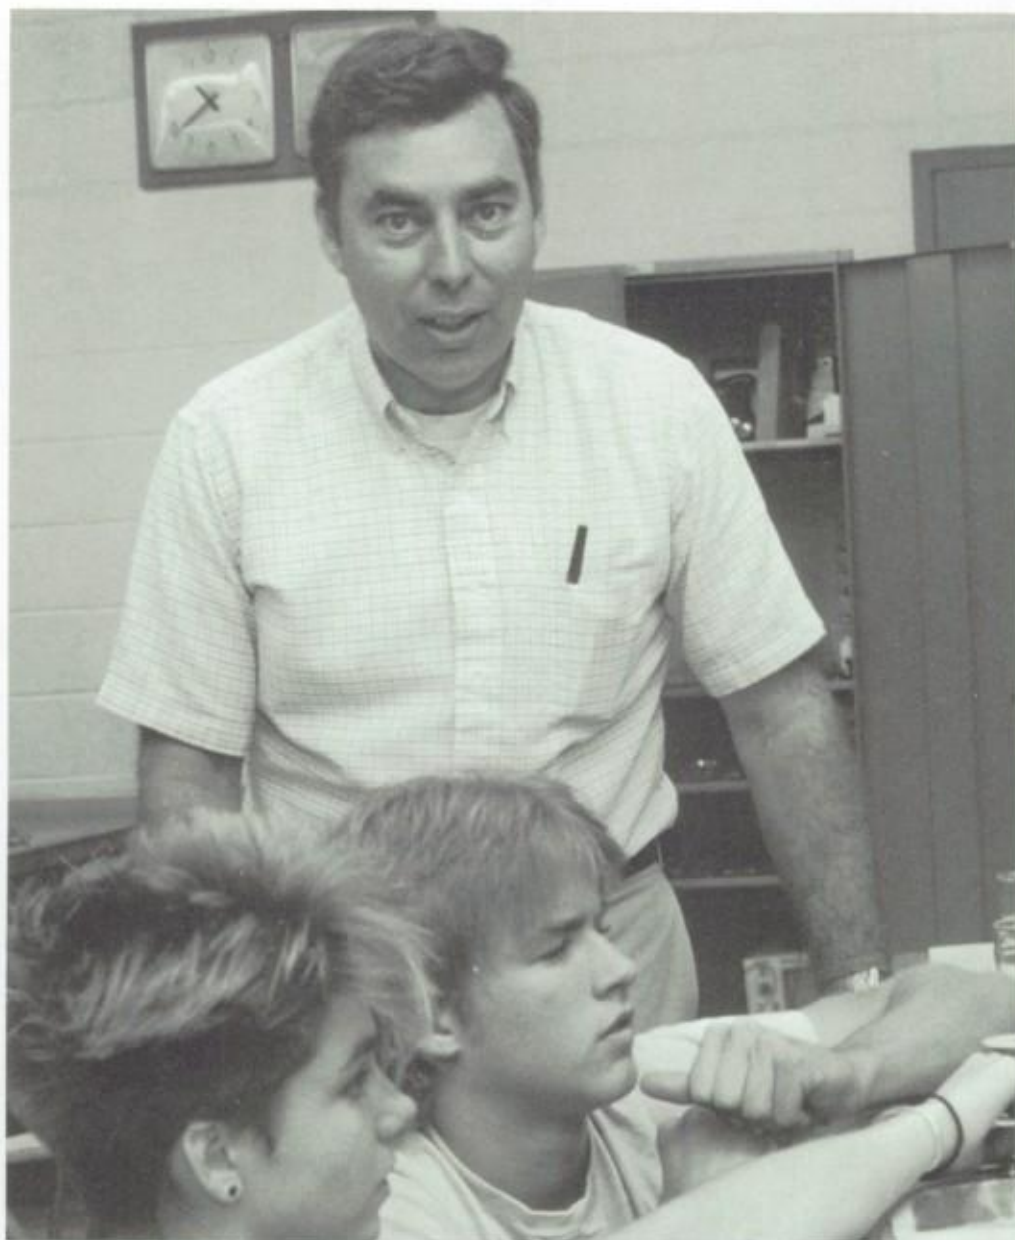

What impresses the new English department chairman most about RHS is the excellent supply of materials — both in terms of quantity and quality.

Currently, John Hoagland is meeting with the principal of the middle school, Charles Kemper to set up a program whereby they can avoid duplication of reading materials on the high school and middle school levels. "In this way, the high school can build on the foundation established by the middle school," said Mr. Hoagland.

The Hoaglands live in North Plainfield, N. J. and have four children ranging in age from 16-25

SCHOOL DAY MEMORIES

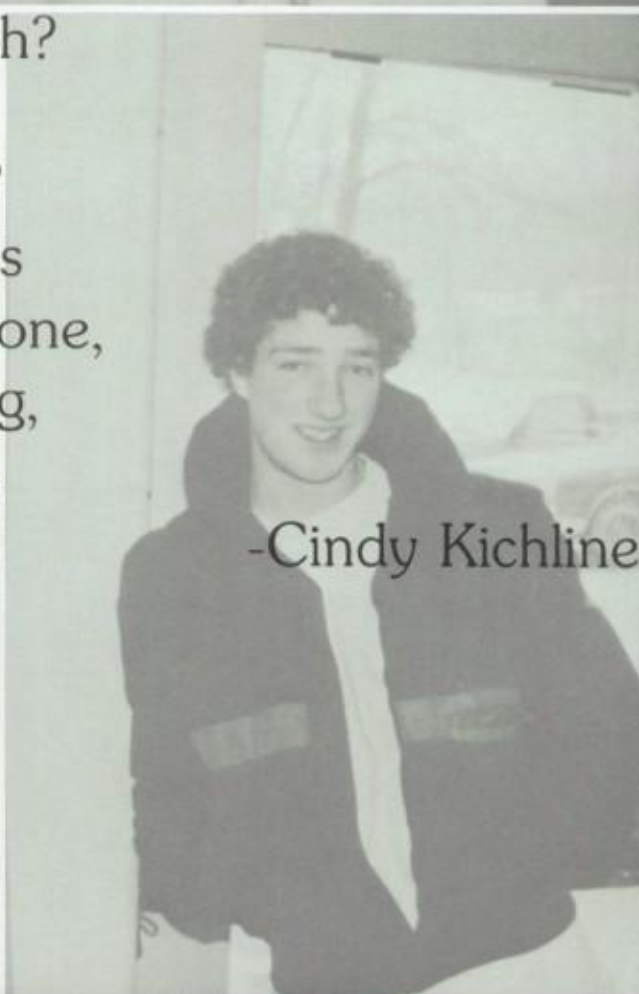

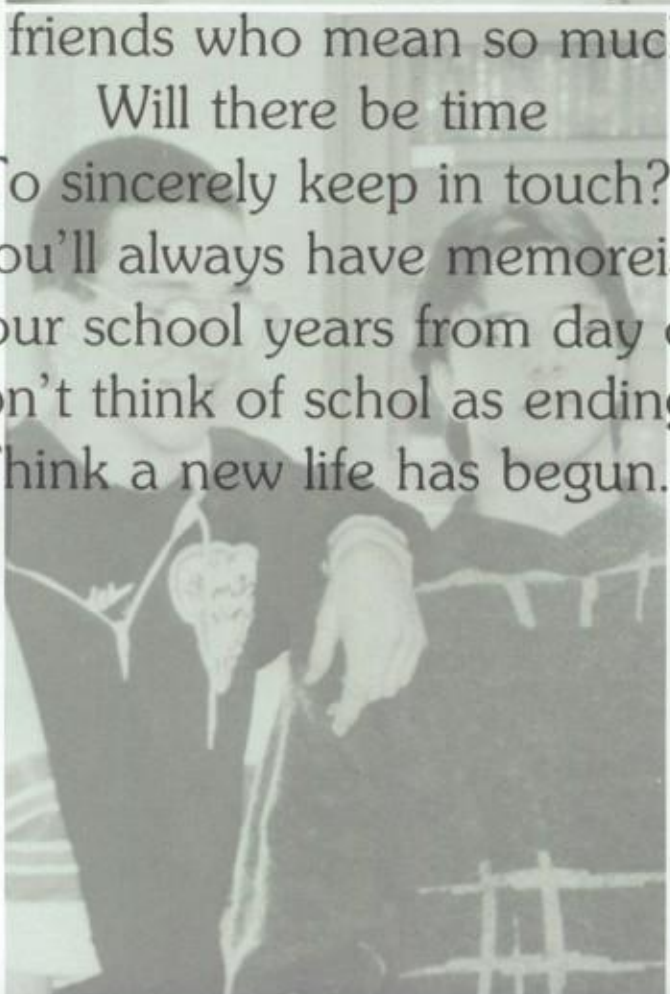

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp,
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.

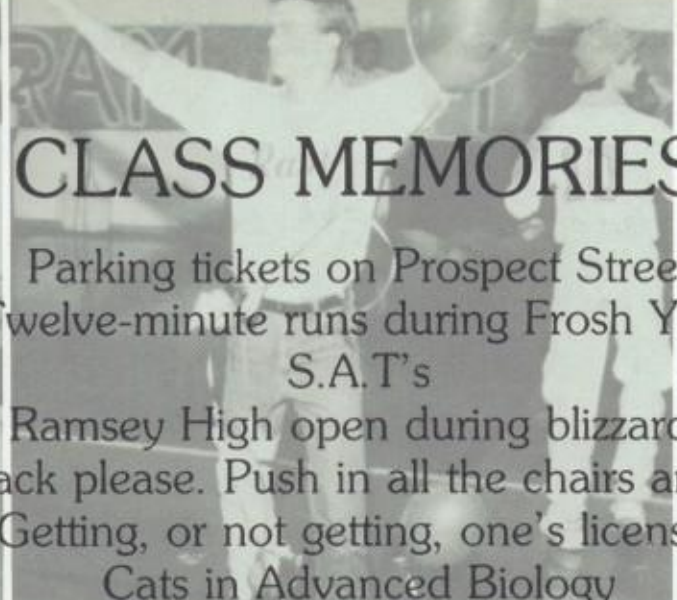

Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life,
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
How we've reached the end,
We are going away.
How do you say good-bye

To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have memories
Of your school years from day one,
Don't think of school as ending,
Think a new life has begun.

IN CONCLUSION,

Well, this is it folks! I cannot even begin to express the overwhelming joy I feel as I write this final letter. I have looked forward to this day since I cropped the first picture on page one. Just think, Mrs. Burkhardt, no more nightmares caused by empty pages and such.!!

So, now is the time to thank all those who lent an appreciated helping hand:

Michael Diesenhof — for doing an awesome job with faculty and being his usual entertaining self.

Liz Sorkenn and Johanna Bond — for producing a lively Student Life Section (even if it took them three months).

John Collins — for being the only original Sports Editor to stick with the book throughout the year. What a guy!

Peter Ohnegian and Rob Coco — the adopted Sports Editors who showed up just in the nick of time.

Laura Sausville — for being reliable and doing a great job.

Chris Bambrick — for her talented artwork.

Karen Sundermier and Chrissie Diffley — eventhough the Activity Section was just thrown in their laps, they managed to produce a quick and complete section.

Ken Quimby and Bob Chin — for putting up with all our complaints (eventhough most were justified).

Underclass Editors — for doing layouts without having to be told and for meeting deadlines.

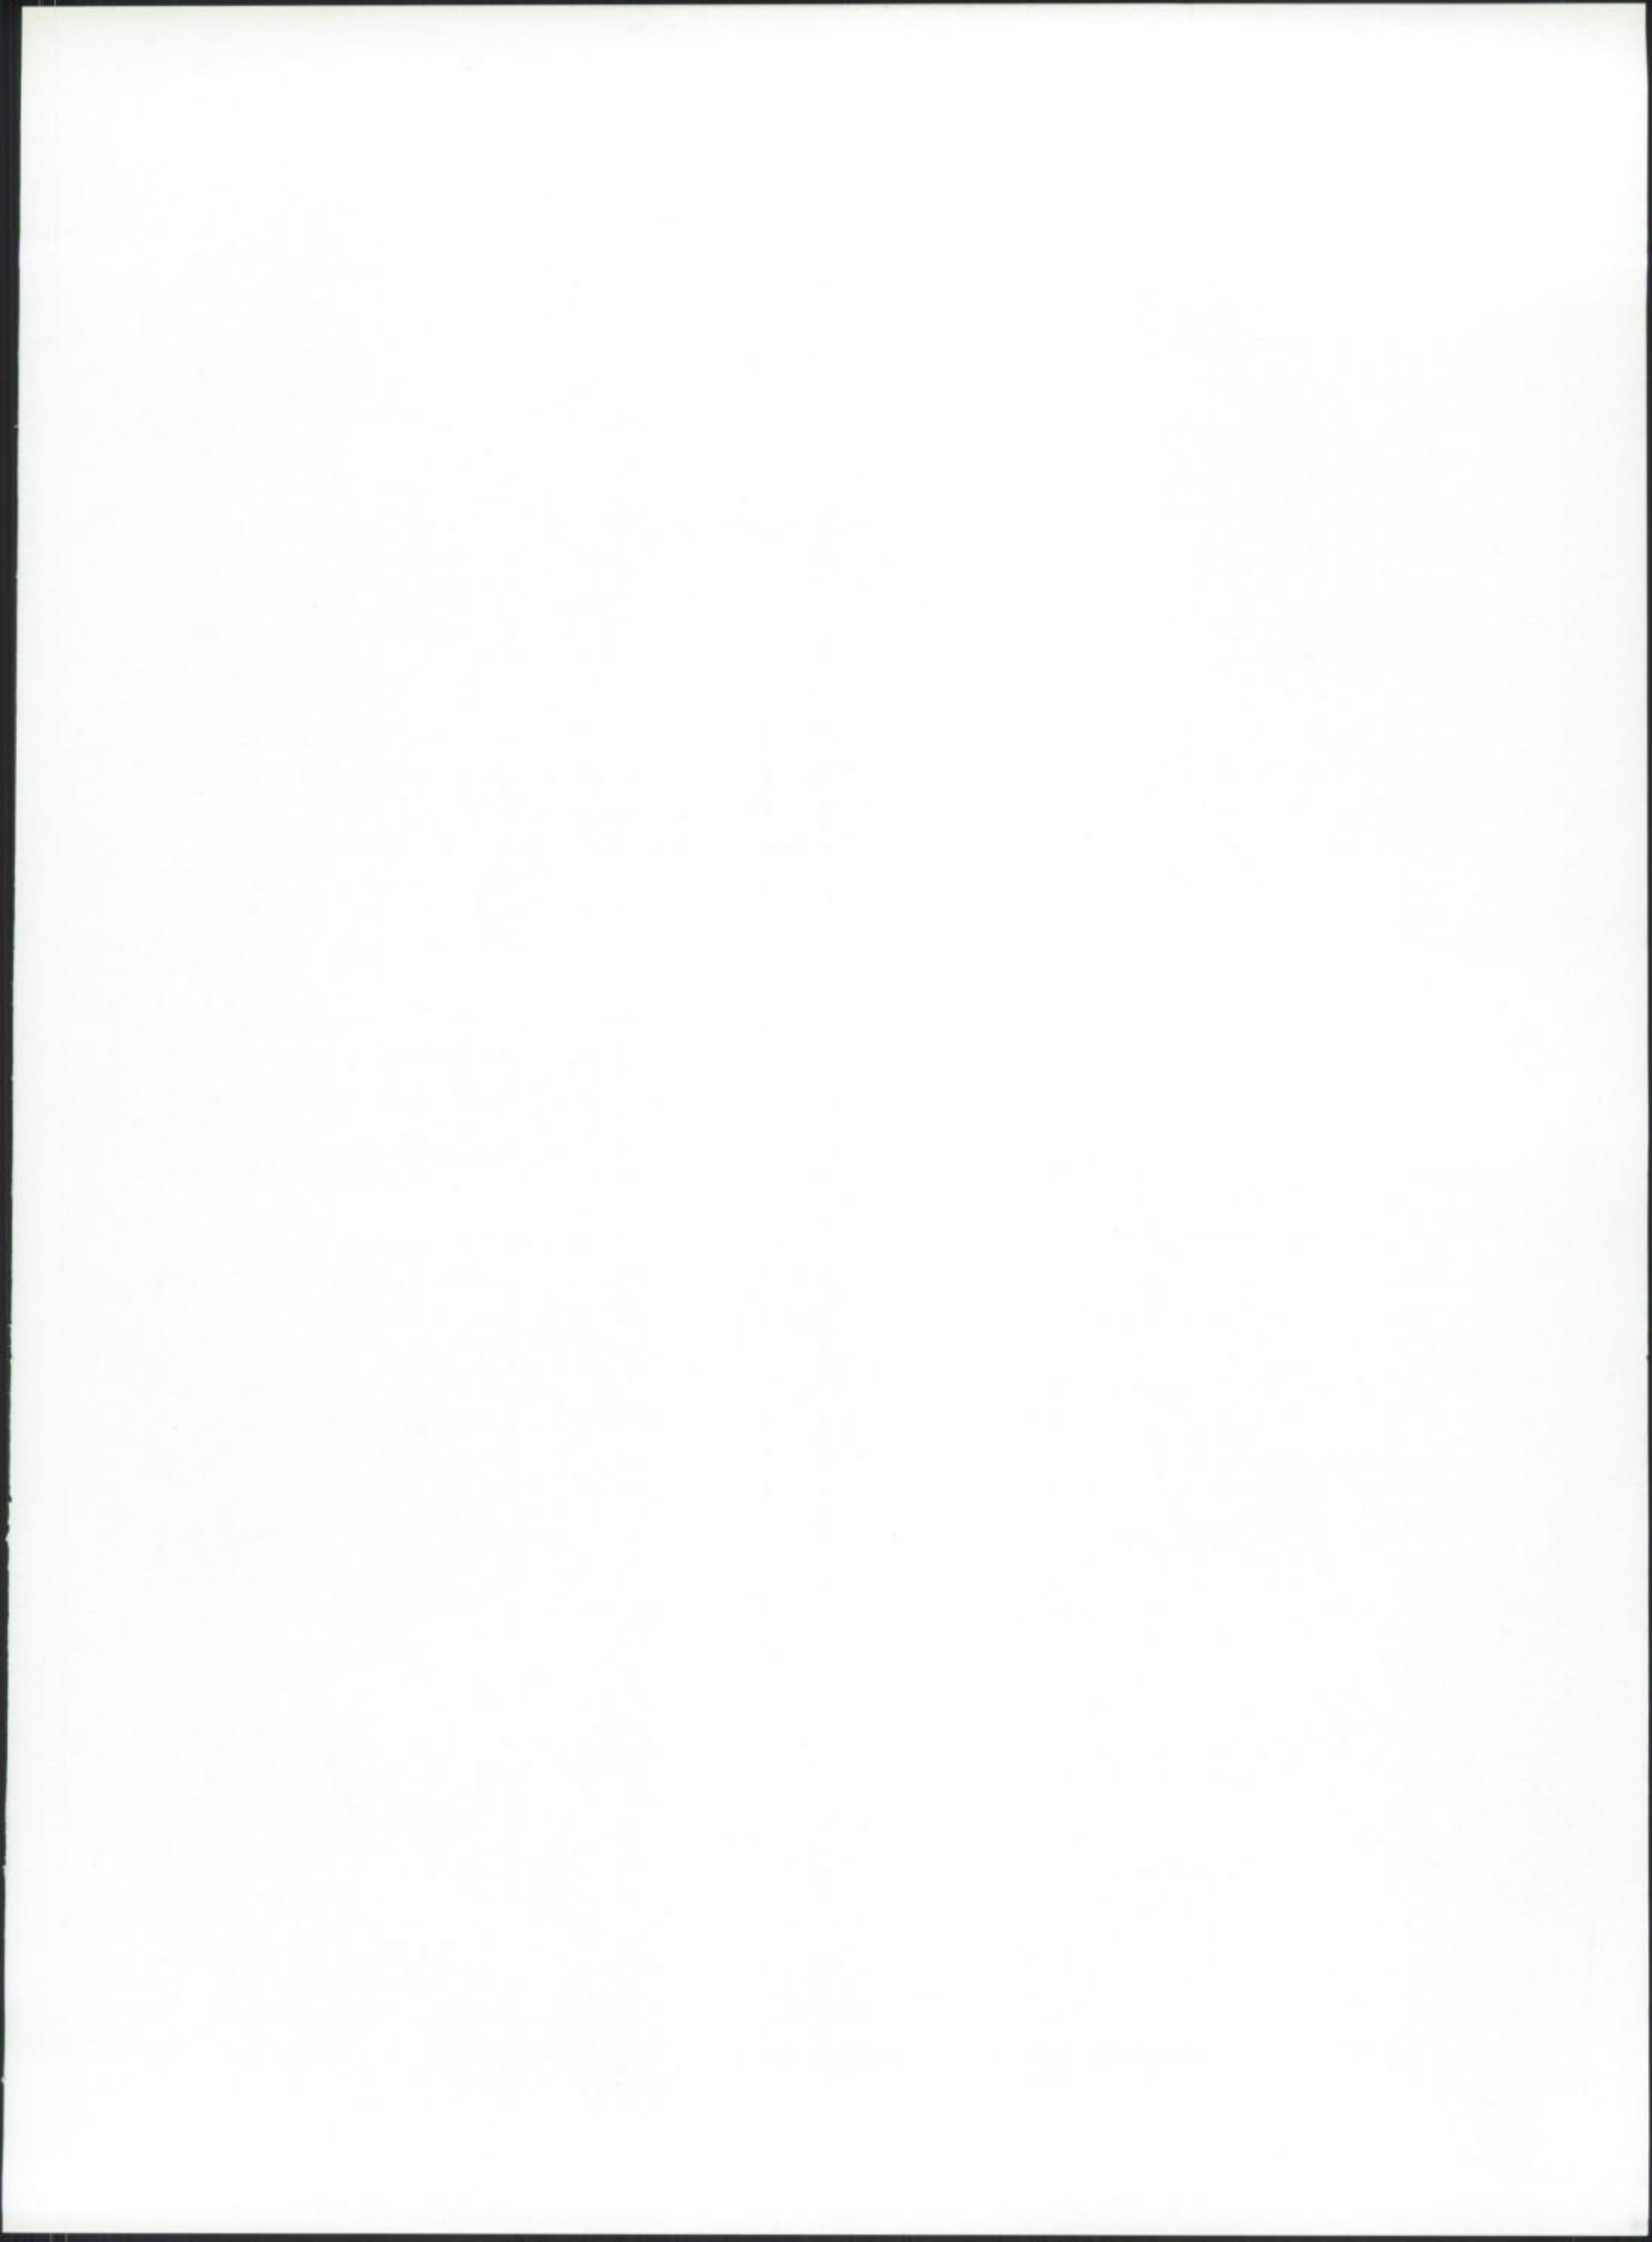

Mr. Bill Tilley — for understanding missed deadlines and lending a helping hand. Thank you!

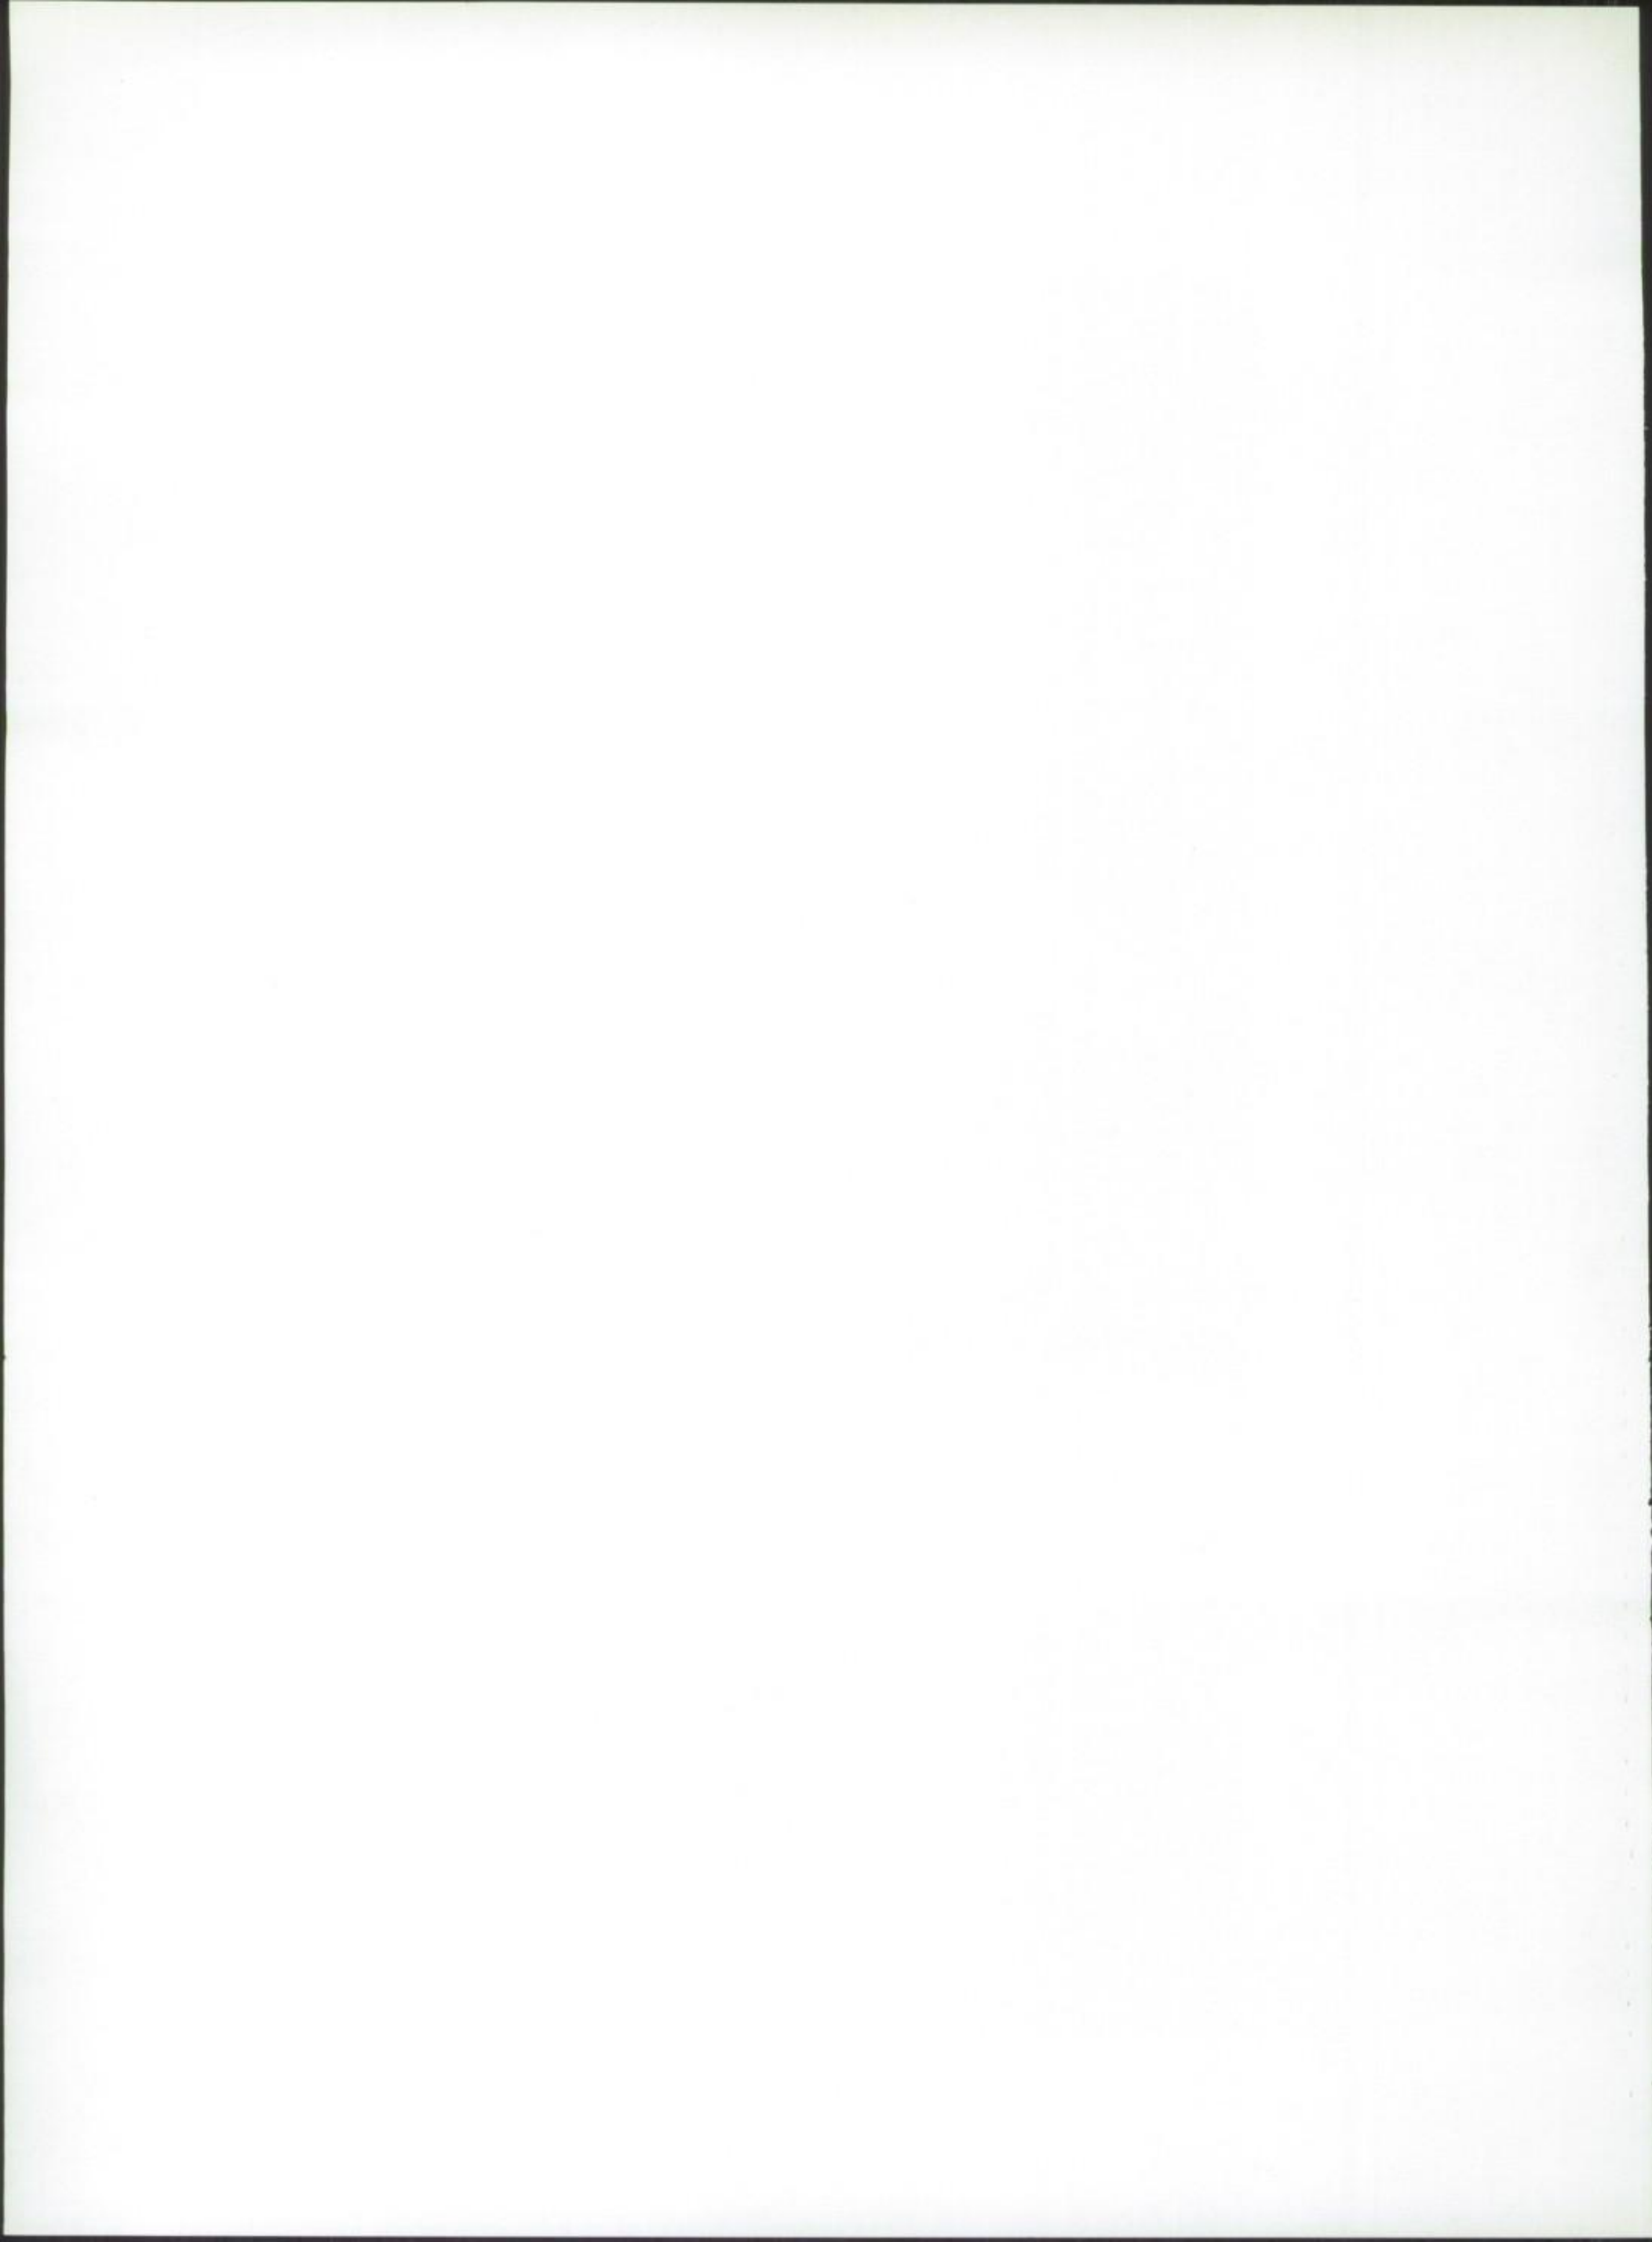

Mrs. Burkhardt — what can I say? We could not have done it without you!

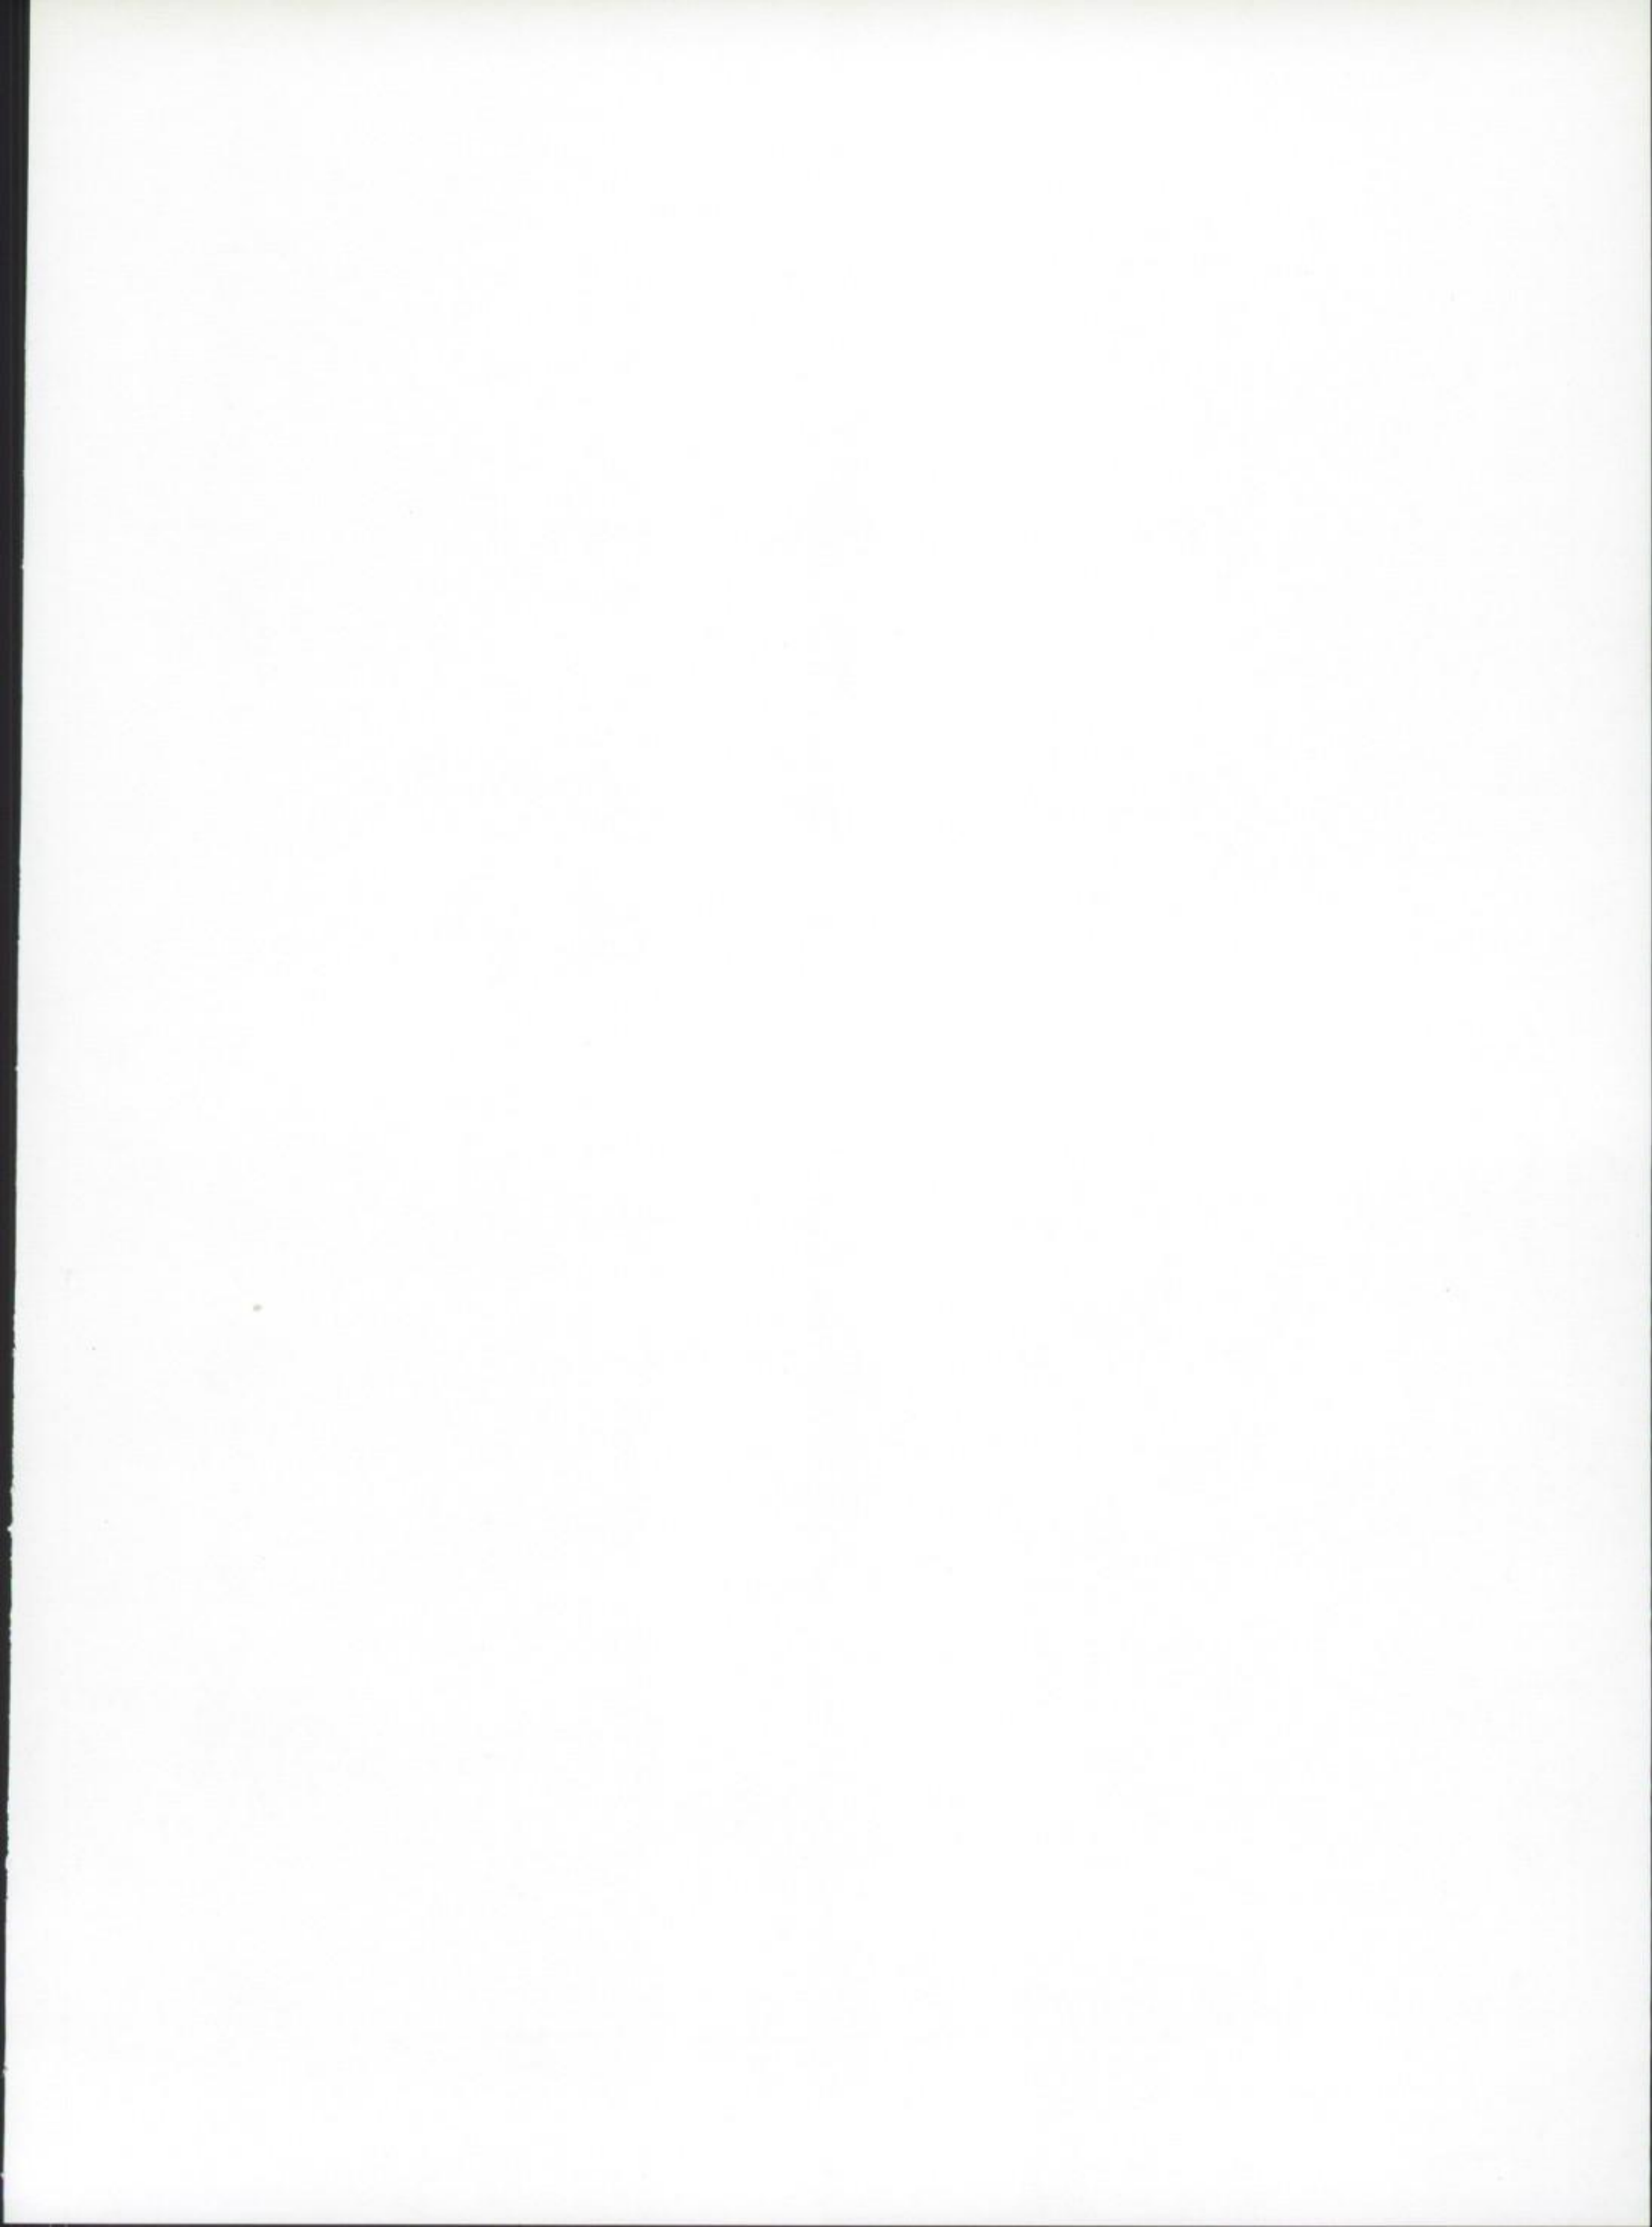

Many thanks to everyone else who helped with the production of this book!

Good Luck Class of '87.

Sincerely,
Katie Hallstrom, Editor-In-Chief
